BY AL KUETTNER

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

ATLANTA, JUNE 15 (UPI).--A BLUE AND WHITE CHARTER AIRPLANE PULLED TO A HALT ON A RUNWAY AT MONTGOMERY, ALA. A MOON-FACED MAN IN A DARK SUIT STEPPED OUT, HURRIED TO A WAITING CAR, EXCHANGED A FEW GREETINGS AND WAS DRIVEN AWAY AT HIGH SPEED.

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR., PRESIDENT OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC) AND ACCEPTED LEADER OF THOUSANDS IN THE CIVIL RIGHTS REVOLUTION WAS ON HIS WAY TO ANOTHER CAMPAIGN MEETING.

KING IS A MAN ALWAYS ON THE MOVE, TRAVELING UP TO 250,000 MILES A YEAR ON THE FAR-FLUNG CIVIL RIGHTS FRONT. CONTROVERSY FOLLOWS HIM EVERYWHERE.

ONCE HE WAS ALMOST KILLED, STABBED BY A NEGRO WOMAN IN NEW YORK. HE HAS BEEN SLUGGED SEVERAL TIMES -- THE LATEST IN A SELMA, ALA. HOTEL WHILE HE WAS REGISTERING. AND HE HAS GONE TO JAIL ALMOST MORE TIMES THAN HE CAN COUNT.

KING HAS MANY CRITICS. THEY PRIVATELY, AND SOMETIMES PUBLICLY, QUESTION HIS SOURCES OF INCOMES, HIS PRIVATE LIFE AND HIS POLITICAL LEANINGS.

"I'M JUST NOT GOING TO KEEP ANSWERING THESE CHARGES AGAINST ME," KING SAID RECENTLY. "I KNOW THEY ARE NOT TRUE. MY FAMILY KNOWS IT AND MY FRIENDS KNOW IT. THESE THINGS ARE BEING USED IN AN ATTEMPT TO DESTROY ME AND THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT."

SOME OF THE PEOPLE CLOSELY ASSOCIATED WITH KING ARE THEMSELVES HIGHLY CONTROVERSIAL. KING CONTENDS HIS ENEMIES ARE TRYING TO REACH HIM BY SMEARING THEM.

PERHAPS THE MOST CONTROVERSIAL OF THE NEGRO LEADER'S FOLLOWERS HAVE BEEN TWO NEW YORKERS, BAYARD RUSTIN, A NEGRO, AND JACK O'DELL, A WHITE MAN.

RUSTIN WAS ONE OF THE FIRST "SIT-IN" DEMONSTRATORS. HE WAS ARRESTED AND SENT TO A GEORGIA "CHAIN GANG" IN THE 1930S FOR TRYING TO OBTAIN SERVICES AT A SEGREGATED EATING PLACE. IN 1965 HE WAS CONNECTED WITH THE YOUNG COMMUNIST LEAGUE BUT PUBLICLY HAS SEVERED CONNECTIONS WITH THE PARTY.

RUSTIN, WHO DIRECTED THE 1963 MARCH ON WASHINGTON, WAS FORMERLY FIELD DIRECTOR OF THE FELLOWSHIP OF RECONCILIATION, A PACIFIST ORGANIZATION. HE HAS BEEN CONVICTED ON MORALS CHARGES.

O'DELL ONCE WORKED IN KING'S NEW YORK OFFICE. KING INSISTS HE HAD NO POLICY MAKING POSITION. HE NOW WRITES FOR A MAGAZINE ENTITLED "FREEDOMWAYS" WHICH PUBLISHES ARTICLES ON RACE.

KING ASKED O'DELL TO RESIGN AFTER PUBLISHED REPORTS THAT THE MAN WAS TIED IN WITH COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES. KING SAID AT THE TIME HAD HAD NO PROOF OF THIS. ONE OF HIS TOP ASSISTANTS, THE REV. WYATT TEE WALKER, PUT IT STRONGER.

WASHINGTON CAPITAL NEWS SERVICE

ORIGINAL FILED IN 100-106670-1504

"THERE HAS NEVER BEEN ANYTHING PRODUCED TO PROVE THAT O'DELL WAS EVER A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY," WALKER SAID. "HE WAS INVESTIGATED BY A FEDERAL COMMITTEE HEADED BY SOUTHERNERS AND THEY FOUND NOTHING. HE SIMPLY RESIGNED BECAUSE OF THE SMEAR ATTEMPTS AGAINST HIM."

KING HIMSELF CONCEDES THAT A FEW COMMUNISTS MAY HAVE WORKED THEIR WAY INTO THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT BUT HE FEELS THEY PRESENT NO MENACE.

"IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE (FOR THE SCLC) TO BE INFLUENCED IN ANY WAY BY THE METHOD OR PHILOSOPHY OF COMMUNISM," KING HAS BEEN QUOTED AS SAYING. "IT IS A FIRM POLICY THAT NO PERSON OF KNOWN COMMUNIST AFFILIATION CAN SERVE ON THE (SCLC) STAFF, EXECUTIVE BOARD OR ITS MEMBERSHIP AT LARGE."

KING'S NEW YORK HEADQUARTERS IS DIVIDED BETWEEN A NEW YORK OFFICE AND A HARLEM BRANCH. IT HAS A SMALL STAFF WITH LARGE DUTIES. MUCH OF THE SCLC'S ANNUAL BUDGET OF MORE THAN $600,000 IS RAISED FROM MONEY APPEALS OUT OF NEW YORK. THIS IS IN CHARGE OF A $5,000-PER-YEAR WHITE WOMAN, MISS ADELE KANTOR.

TWO KEY POSTS IN NEW YORK ARE VOLUNTARY, OCCUPIED BY ATTORNEYS CLARENCE JONES AND HARRY WACHTEL. THEY HANDLE KING'S LEGAL BUSINESS, PROTECTING HIM FROM PEOPLE WHO TRY TO RECORD AND "SELL" HIS VOICE, COPY AND SELL HIS SPEECHES OR OTHERWISE EXPLOIT THE NEGRO LEADER.

IT WAS JONES WHO SUGGESTED TO KING THAT ALL HIS PREPARED SPEECHES BE COPYRIGHTED SO THEY COULD NOT BE DUPLICATED WITHOUT PERMISSION.

1ST ADD KING ATLANTA (ADVANCE FOR AM'S WEDNESDAY 16 OR THEREAFTER) (A98N) X X X ASSOCIATE PASTOR.

THE ATLANTA SCLC HEADQUARTERS, ITS FRONT OFFICE SPLASHED WITH LIBERAL PUBLICATIONS FEATURING CIVIL RIGHTS ARTICLES, IS THE "COMMAND POST" FOR KING'S ORGANIZATION. ITS PHONES RING CONSTANTLY. SECRETARIES, DUPLICATING ROOM WORKERS AND KING'S TOP LEADERS BUMP SHOULDERS AS THEY PASS FROM SMALL OFFICE TO SMALL OFFICE.

THIS FIRST TEAM INCLUDES THE REV. ANDREW YOUNG, KING'S EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR; THE REV. RALPH ABERNATHY, VICE PRESIDENT AND TREASURER; RANDOLPH BLACKWELL, THE "INTELLECTUAL" PLANNER; THE REV. JAMES BEVEL, "THE MAN IN CHARGE OF DEMONSTRATIONS"; AND HARRY BOYTE, THE "LINK" BETWEEN WHITE AND NEGRO COMMUNITIES AND ONE OF THE FEW WHITE OFFICIALS ON KING'S STAFF.

KING, WHO MOVED RECENTLY INTO A REMODELED BRICK HOUSE LOCATED IN THE PREDOMINANTLY NEGRO WEST SIDE OF TOWN, HAS LITTLE TIME AT HOME WITH HIS CONCERT-SINGER WIFE, CORETTA, OR THEIR FOUR CHILDREN.

FAMILY NIGHTS AT THE YMCA SWIMMING POOL AND A FEW GAMES ARE HIS MAIN RECREATION. THE PACE FOR KING, AT TIMES 20 HOURS A DAY, SOMETIMES PUTS HIM TO BED UNDER A DOCTOR'S CARE.

IF KING IS BOTHERED BY THE STEADY ATTACKS ON HIM, THE REACTION DOES NOT SHOW ON HIS IMPASSIVE FACE.

THE NEGRO LEADER SAYS HIS "TAKE-HOME PAY" IS ABOUT $12,000 A YEAR--$4,000 AS ASSOCIATE PASTOR OF THE EBENEZER BAPTIST CHURCH IN ATLANTA, $2,000 PARSONAGE ALLOWANCE AND ABOUT $6,000 IN "GOOD YEARS" FROM SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS. HE RECEIVES A TOKEN $1 A YEAR FOR HEADING THE SCLC AND VARYING AMOUNTS FROM ROYALTIES ON HIS BOOKS AND OTHER WRITINGS. LAST YEAR THESE TOTALED ABOUT $30,000.

DURING THE RECENT SELMA-TO-MONTGOMERY MARCH, HIS OPPOSITION PURCHASED HIGHWAY SIGNBOARD SPACE AND EXHIBITED BLOWN UP PHOTOGRAPHS OF KING AND SEVERAL OTHERS, LABELED: "MARTIN LUTHER KING ATTENDING COMMUNIST TRAINING SCHOOL."

THE PHOTOGRAPH WAS MADE BY A PHOTOGRAPHER FOR A GEORGIA SEGREGATION-ORIENTED STATE EDUCATION COMMISSION AT THE HIGHLANDER FOLK SCHOOL IN MONTEAGLE, TENN. BOTH THE COMMITTEE AND THE SCHOOL ARE NOW DEFUNCT.

FORMER MISSISSIPPI GOV. ROSS BARNETT LABELED THE SCHOOL "A COMMUNIST TRAINING SCHOOL" DURING TESTIMONY BEFORE A SENATE COMMITTEE.

GEORGIA ATTORNEY GENERAL EUGENE COOK, WHO HAS THE STATE INVESTIGATION FINDINGS OF THE SCHOOL UNDER LOCK AND KEY, CALLED IT SUBVERSIVE.

HIGHLANDER TRAINED MANY OF KING'S "NON-VIOLENT" WORKERS IN THE EARLY DAYS OF HIS CAMPAIGN. TODAY HE OPERATES HIS OWN "TRAINING" SCHOOL IN SOUTH GEORGIA.

KING, IN CONTRAST TO SOME OTHER CIVIL RIGHTS LEADERS, BELIEVES THE DAY OF STREET DEMONSTRATIONS IS NOT OVER. HE CONTENTS THAT GRIEVANCES WHICH SENT NEGROES INTO THE STREETS IN THE FIRST PLACE ARE UNSETTLED. HE BELIEVES DEMONSTRATIONS ARE MORE LIKELY THIS SUMMER IN THE NORTH THAN IN THE SOUTH.

KING ALSO FEELS THE 1964 CIVIL RIGHTS BILL WAS "ONLY A START" AND THAT BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY MUST NOW TEAM UP "TO END JOB DISCRIMINATION" AND TO PUT THE PRESSURE ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS TO GRANT NEGROES "AT LEAST EQUAL RIGHTS."

ADVANCE FOR AM'S WEDNESDAY JUNE 16 OR THEREAFTER.

COMINFIL OF STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (SNCC)
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

Re ATairtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM) 4/15/65, above caption, copies to Chicago, which reported that an official of the SCLC had been in contact with a Mrs. Josephine Davis of Chicago, Illinois, who stated that she heads a committee of six women from the Chicago area. The committee is known by the name "Those" (phonetic) and has raised $11,000 on behalf of the SCLC. A lead was set out for the Chicago Office to identify Mrs. Davis and the unknown committee and furnish any pertinent subversive references thereto.

Re Chicago airtel 6/16/65 and LHM 6/17/65 "Josephine Davis, Racial Matters," copies to Atlanta. This airtel advised that Chicago Office indices for an organization or committee known as "Those" (phonetic) and other phonetic spellings are negative and that the Chicago Office files have no subversive information identifiable with Davis. The LHM of 6/17/65 contains considerable data concerning Mrs. Davis developed through a somewhat diligent investigative effort. It does not contain any subversive information and [redacted] [redacted] purpose of the Bureau's interest; namely, Cominfil of SNCC.

In view of the lack of subversive information concerning Davis, the failure to identify her organization and therefore lack of subversive information concerning it, no further investigation should be conducted concerning Davis or her group unless a subversive involvement is indicated.

Re: Cominfil of SNCC

The foregoing, as well as the following, is for the future guidance of your office in handling matters pertaining to captioned case. The 6/16/65 correspondence should have been in the same caption as above rather than a Racial Matter concerning Davis. Further, the 6/17/65 LHM was captioned concerning Davis and referenced Atlanta LHM of 4/15/65. It failed, however, to indicate that the 4/15/65 LHM was of a different caption. Consequently, the reference was useless.

The 6/17/65 LHM is not being disseminated for the reasons stated above.

INDEPENDENT SOCIALIST LEAGUE (ISL)
Formerly Workers Party (WP)

The May 4, 1942, issue of "Labor Action", then an official publication of the Workers Party (WP), carried an article which reflected that the WP was formed in April, 1940, as a result of a split within the leadership of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The article stated that when the Hitler-Stalin Pact was signed and Poland invaded, the minority group within the SWP, in proclaiming the formation of the WP, condemned the pact as being imperialistic in nature and stated it would not support either imperialist camp.

The April 25, 1949, issue of "Labor Action" contained an account of the Fifth National Convention of the WP, held March 24-27, 1949, in New York City, which reflected the change of name of the organization from the WP to the Independent Socialist League (ISL) in order to emphasize the character of the group as a propaganda group for the spreading of socialist ideas and not as a full-fledged political party.

The July 14, 1958, issue of "Labor Action", an official publication of the ISL, contained an article captioned "The ISL Program in Brief." The article indicated: "The ISL stands for socialist democracy and against the two systems of exploitation which now divide the world: capitalism and Stalinism. The ISL, as a Marxist movement, looks to the working class and its ever-present struggle as the basic progressive force in society. The ISL is organized to spread the ideas of socialism in the labor movement and among all other sections of the people. There can be no lasting and genuine democracy without socialism and there can be no socialism without democracy."

The September 22, 1958, issue of "Labor Action" contained an undated statement signed by the Political Committee of the ISL which indicated that the ISL had been dissolved. The statement urged former ISL members to join the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

RE: JOSEPHINE DAVIS

On June 4, 1965, Sergeant [] advised that he had learned that Josephine Davis had been among the Chicago residents who participated in the recent Selma to Montgomery, Alabama march. While participating, Davis reportedly became interested in doing more, and Davis, with other unknown individuals, formed an organization, name unknown, to raise some funds for civil rights work. Sergeant [] advised this was not an organization which was to operate on a continuing basis.

b6
b7C

During the months of May and June, 1965, sources of the Chicago Office of the FBI, who are familiar with the various phases of the Communist Party (CP) and/or CP front group activities, were contacted for information concerning Josephine Davis. No information concerning Davis was obtained as a result of these contacts.

SECURITY MATTER - C

On Page 30-A of the June 27, 1965 issue of "The Miami Herald", Miami, Florida newspaper, there is an article captioned, "Baptist Shuns Civil Disobedience", written over the byline of ADON TAFT, Herald Religion Editor. A portion of this article is as follows:

"An influential leader at the Baptist World Alliance here Saturday rejected civil disobedience to attain civil rights.

"Dr. Joseph H. Jackson also backed the movement to elect an African Negro as president of BWA.

"Jackson is president of the 5.5-million member National (Negro) Baptist Convention in the U.S.A. and a vice president of BWA.

"He said civil disobedience and economic boycotts are 'negative approaches which may call attention to problems but cannot solve them.'

"He called for a positive approach, citing the $10 million educational foundation being set up by his own organization.

"'We must go from protest to production,' Jackson said.

"He added that education will put Negroes in a better economic and political position to gain full rights and accept full responsibilities.

RE: MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

"It was a familiar theme for Jackson. He has steadily refused to go along with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., civil rights leader.

"King formerly was a member of Jackson's denomination but now is affiliated with the American Baptist Convention.

"He said the Negro churches, the NAACP and the Urban League had carried the brunt of the fight before King's appearance.

"Jackson's presence on the BWA Executive Committee has been suggested by some observers as the reason King is not on the BWA congress program.)

"Jackson said the civil rights battle practically had been won before King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference and other such groups came on the scene.

"..... While Dr. Jackson was holding his press conference inside the convention hall where 12,000 delegates were listening to talks, a group of 46 sign-carrying representatives of the International Christian Youth were picketing the presence at the congress of five delegates from Russia.

"The signs called the Russians Communists. The protest group was ignored."

Also on Page 30-A of this issue of "The Miami Herald" was an article captioned, "King Says He's Only A Delegate", as follows:

"The Rev. Martin Luther King, one of the world's leading Baptists, arrived in Miami Saturday for the Baptist World Alliance--without an invitation to speak.

"King, the 1964 winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, diplomatically brushed the matter aside.

"'I have spoken at many conventions', he said. 'I don't deem it necessary to be on the platform. I am here merely as a delegate.'

"Earlier Saturday, Dr. Joseph H. Jackson, Chicago Negro Clergyman, specifically criticized the King-styled civil disobedience movement as 'negative'.

"Dr. Jackson is on the executive committee of the World Alliance.

"'I consider Dr. Jackson a Christian brother', said King, arriving here after an eight-day lecture tour of Jamaica. 'But most Negroes don't agree with him. I certainly believe the program of non-violence is necessary.'

"King noted that Negroes have picketed Dr. Jackson's church in Chicago and that NAACP delegates once 'booed him down.' 'But I don't want to get into a public debate', he said."

The June 27, 1965 issue of "The Miami News", Miami, Florida newspaper contained an article captioned "Rev. King Raps The Pickets", over the by-line of LOUISE BLANCHARD, Reporter of "The Miami News", as follows:

"'Picketing of the Baptist World Alliance convention by a rightist anti-Communist group is unfortunate,' Dr. Martin Luther King said here yesterday.

"'It's fine that Christianity is still alive in Russia, in spite of the attempt of atheistic communism to do away with the church', he said.

"I'm glad that we can have fellowship with our Russian brethren. It may be that these Russian Baptists will be able to inject a new spiritual dimension into the vein of Russian society", said Dr. King, Negro civil rights leader who won the Nobel Peace Prize.

"An organization called Christian Witnesses Against Communism picketed Miami Beach Convention Hall briefly in protest against the presence of Russian Baptists at the convention of the worldwide BWA.

"Dr. King, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, met reporters when he arrived to attend the BWA convention as a delegate and a Baptist minister.

"Asked why he wasn't making a speech, Dr. King smiled and said, 'It isn't necessary for me to speak at every Baptist gathering.'

"The Southern Christian Leadership Conference does not plan to concentrate civil rights demonstrations this summer on any one community, Dr. King said. But it will work to double the number of Negro registered voters in the South.

"We will do some work in northern cities', he said. 'There are many big future problems in the ghettos of the major cities of the North.

"Mississippi inevitably will be a testing ground', he added. 'It's the worst state in the country, a reign of terror.'

"He predicted that civil rights non-violent demonstrators 'will have to do a great deal of work in Mississippi to bring the issue before the conscience of the nation.'

"Civil rights workers might return to St. Augustine, scene of riots last summer, Dr. King said.

"I've been disturbed by some recent developments in St. Augustine', he said. 'We are always on call. If necessary, we certainly will go back to St. Augustine.'

"He said economic barriers to racial equality 'are certainly the most difficult and agonizing problem we face. If the Negro cannot enter into the mainstream of economic life, other accomplishments are meaningless. It's not much good to be allowed to enter a restaurant if you don't have money for a hamburger.'"

The June 29, 1965 issue of "The Miami Herald" contained an article captioned, "Rev. King's 'Absence' Stirs Row", over the by-line of ADON TAFT, Herald Religion Editor, as follows:

"An undercurrent of resentment over the absence of Martin Luther King from the program of the Baptist World Alliance Congress broke into the open here Monday.

"A young Negro pastor from Houston called his absence 'the indictment of the Baptist World Alliance' in an address to a study session for pastors. Applause, by both Negroes and whites, from most of the 2,000 in the Miami Beach Auditorium interrupted the speech.

"The Rev. William A. Lawson was speaking on 'Race and Human Rights'. He said that the fact that race should be an issue at this meeting of 17,000 delegates from some 80 countries ranges 'from embarrassing to clumsy'.

"He went on to talk about the need for prophets in this field. 'The person who should be here, 'Rev. Lawson said, 'is a prophet who would have been vetoed by the program committee--the Nobel Peace Prize winner who even now is on the grounds (a reference to King, who attended the conference Sunday, but who was to return to Atlanta Monday).

"Dr. Theodore Adams, chairman of the program committee, explained that King was not deliberately excluded from the program, but was just not selected in the process of sifting more than 1,000 names to pick 233 speakers from 52 countries to address the congress.

"King declined in invitation to be on the program in Rio de Janeiro in 1960, did appear on the program of last year's tri-annual meeting of the European Baptist Confederation and cancelled out of the 1963 program of the Baptist World Youth Conference in Beirut, Lebanon, said Dr. Adams, a member of the Southern Baptist Convention and former president of the Baptist World Alliance.

"Many observers at the conference have suggested that the presence of Dr. Joseph H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention in the U.S.A., Inc., from which King has broken, on the administrative committee of the alliance, is the reason King was not on the program here."

Reference is made to Mr. Baumgardner's memorandum to Mr. Sullivan in captioned matter dated today. The memorandum relates that Ralph Abernathy, treasurer of captioned group, stated in effect he had access to FBI files, FBI Agents tell them whoever is a communist in his group, and that his people check these things out with the FBI in Washington.

ACTION TAKEN:

Pursuant to Mr. Tolson's instructions, SAC Ponder of the Atlanta Office was instructed by Wick at 6:40 p.m. today to answer all inquiries from the press with the statement that an FBI spokesman said Abernathy's statements concerning the FBI are absolutely untrue and that FBI files are confidential.

Ponder was told to see to it that our statement receives widespread news media acceptance. He was told to particularly insure that the stations and news people mentioning the Abernathy remarks "give the lie" to them by the statement from the FBI spokesman.

Inquiries here at the Seat of Government were answered in a similar manner this evening so as to give the lie to Martin Luther King and his ilk.

At 4:40 p.m., 7-1-65, Special Agent in Charge Ponder of our Atlanta Office called and stated that Ralph Abernathy, Treasurer of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, held a press conference today. Either during the conference or during a side interview, Abernathy said, "There are no communists in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. We screen them. If in doubt we go to the FBI." When asked how it was possible for him to get information from the FBI he said, "We have a committee in Washington and the committee works closely with the FBI."

Ponder stated that this information was obtained through a contact with the NBC radio station in Atlanta and that the radio station has a tape recording of the interview. He said this will be coming out as a UPI release this afternoon and he wanted the Bureau to have the information right away. He said he would get his hands on a copy of the tape recording of the statements by Abernathy and would furnish the Bureau complete details in a teletype.

ACTION:

It is pointed out certain details are set forth in this report which normally would not be included in a Cominfil-type investigation. This data was included in view of the subversive ramifications on the part of several leaders of the organization and it was impossible to determine what activity was legitimate desegregation activities or racial matters and which activity reflected CP influence and direction. In view of the subversive connections it is considered that basically all activity of the organization is significant and justly reported in this security report.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL BACKGROUND OF
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
(SCLC)

A. Founding and Stated Purpose of SCLC

On May 3, 1965, [redacted]

[redacted] made available a brochure published by Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC, 334 Auburn Avenue, N.E., Atlanta 3, Georgia, which sets forth the organizational background of the organization as follows:

b6
b7D

On January 10, 1957, more than 100 Southern leaders met in Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss mutual problems of the Southern (racial) struggle. At this time it was voted to form a permanent organization which would serve as a coordinating agency for centers of local protest that would utilize the technique and philosophy of nonviolence. Following the Montgomery, Alabama, bus boycott the SCLC came into being at a meeting held in New Orleans, Louisiana, at which time MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was elected President.

The SCLC is structured through affiliate organizations throughout the South which make up the body of the conference. Making and execution of basic policy is the responsibility of the Executive Board, which is geographically representative of the entire South. Of the 33 board members, 24 are elected by the conference and nine by the Executive Board. Each affiliate may have from one to five voting delegates at any deliberative session of the conference. An annual meeting normally is held in the early fall and the Executive Board meets in the early spring. Intervening policy decisions are handled by an Administrative Committee between meetings of the conference and the board.

There is no membership in the SCLC organization per se. Affiliate groups and organizations constitute the actual membership in SCLC and in turn, individuals belong to the affiliates (churches, civic organizations, fraternal groups, etc.). The minimum affiliate fee is $25 per year, which entitles the group to one voting delegate in all deliberative sessions. If an affiliate pays $125 fee it is entitled to five voting delegates. Affiliation requires an application in writing to the national office which indicates the general structure and purposes of the group seeking affiliation. Affiliate membership is confirmed by either the Executive Board or Administrative Committee. An affiliate, upon confirmation, receives certificates and suitable credentials indicating the availability of SCLC services. In addition, the SCLC Newsletter and other printed relevant material of the social struggle are forwarded to the membership of the affiliate group periodically.

The SCLC from its inception, has been nonsectarian. The word Christian in SCLC's name is described as natural and unique to the social structure of the Negro community in the South, as the church is his only forum, owned, operated and controlled by him, affording broadest opportunity for social intercourse. The high incidence of ministers comprising the leadership of SCLC is a natural result of clergy generally being the leaders of protest centers in the South. SCLC welcomes the support of any person or group of persons having as their ultimate goal democracy in America through peaceful and non-violent means. The SCLC lists as its basic aim the achieving of full citizenship rights, equality and the integration of the Negro in all aspects of American life. SCLC considers itself as a service agency to facilitate coordinated action of local community groups. SCLC activity revolves around two main focal points. They are the use of non-violent philosophy as a means of creative protest and securing the right of the ballot.

The basic philosophy of SCLC shall be based upon the tenets of Hebraic-Christian tradition coupled with the Ghandian concept of satyagraha - truth force - which is at the heart of the SCLC philosophy. Christian non-violence actively resists evil in any form and never seeks to humiliate the opponent, only to win him. Suffering is accepted without retaliation. Internal violence of the spirit is as much to be rejected as external physical violence. Creatively used, the philosophy of nonviolence can restore the broken community in America. SCLC is convinced that non-violence is the most potent force available to the oppressed people in their struggle for freedom. ~~SECRET~~

AT 100-5718

The dilemma in race relations can most quickly be resolved through mass action of people committed to a nonviolent philosophy who will identify themselves in a just and moral struggle. The nonviolent mass action dramatizes the evil system in order that the conscience of the community may grapple with the issue at hand.

SCLC considers one of its most vital programs in the struggle in the South as leadership training. This leadership training is directed as the organization of communities at the "grass roots" level as it is believed the great success of the struggle for full citizenship will be determined by this second-line leadership. Training is provided in Citizenship Schools and the Correspondence Institute which include courses of student on such subjects as Registration and Voting; Social Protest; Understanding Politics; Use of the Boycott; How to Picket; The Nature of Prejudice, etc. SCLC considers the right of the ballot as basic to the exercise of full citizenship rights. For this reason its specialized staff works in aiding local communities through every means available to secure the right to vote. It also arouses interest through voter registration workshops re-emphasizing the importance of the ballot.

SCLC sees civil disobedience as a natural consequence of nonviolence when the resister is confronted by unjust and immoral laws. This does not imply that SCLC advocates either anarchy or lawlessness. The Conference firmly believes that all people have a moral responsibility to obey laws that are just. It recognizes, however, that there also are unjust laws. From a purely moral point of view, an unjust law is one that is out of harmony with the moral law of the universe or, as the religionist would say, out of harmony with the Law of God. More concretely, an unjust law is one in which the minority is compelled to observe a code which is not binding on the majority. An unjust law is one in which people are required to obey a code that they had no part in making because they were denied the right to vote. In the face of such obvious inequality, where difference is made legal, the nonviolent resister has no alternative but to disobey the unjust law. In disobeying such a law, he does so peacefully, openly and nonviolently. Most important, he willingly accepts the penalty for breaking the law. This distinguishes SCLC's position on civil disobedience from the "uncivil disobedience" of the racist opposition in the South. In the face of laws they consider unjust, they seek to defy, evade, and circumvent the law, BUT they are unwilling to accept the penalty for breaking the law. The end result of their defiance is anarchy and disrespect for the law. SCLC, on the other hand, believes that civil disobedience involves the highest respect for the law. He who openly disobeys a law that conscience tells him is unjust and willingly accepts the penalty is giving evidence that he so respects the law that he belongs in jail until it is changed.

Funds for SCLC are obtained from mass rallies, individual and organizational pledges, direct mailing appeals and affiliate fees. Some portion of funds is realized through the personal appearance of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and other staff members. Fund raising projects in the form of benefits featuring outstanding artists of show business have added substantially to the financial support.

The SCLC views Southern college student sit-in movements as the most important development in the Southern struggle. It has done everything within its power and resources to aid and abet the students in developing their nonviolent protests. The Student Non-Violent

Coordinating Committee (SNCC) was born as a result of a conference called by SCLC at Raleigh, North Carolina, in the Spring of 1960. SCLC continues to serve in an advisory capacity, through its staff and president, to SNCC. ~~SECRET~~

SCLC is firmly opposed to segregation in any form and pledges to rid every vestige of segregation from our nation through nonviolent means.

The basic program of SCLC encompasses nonviolent resistance to all forms of racial injustice including state and local laws and practices even though these actions may bring about arrests. SCLC resists the system of segregation which is the cause of lagging standards and it works constructively to improve the standards themselves.

The ultimate aim and goal of SCLC is to create a "beloved community" in America, which brotherhood is a reality. It rejects the doctrine of black supremacy as this substitutes one kind of tyranny for another. Genuine intergroup and interpersonal living or integration is the objective. This is to be accomplished only through non-violence. The international focus on America and her internal problems against the dread prospect of war demand our seeking this end.

A news item in "The Atlanta Daily World" (an Atlanta, Georgia, daily Negro newspaper) dated May 21, 1965, titled "Albany 'Justice' Assailed," datelined Hapeville, Georgia, sets forth information regarding a semi-annual board meeting of the Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF) held in Hapeville during the previous weekend. The article reports that Miss CAROL HOOVER, Atlanta, Georgia, an administrative assistant at the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) was one of four new members added to the board of SCEF at this meeting.

A Characterization of the SCEF is included in the Appendix of this report.

On August 22, 1964, AT T-5 advised that CAROL HOOVER of SCLC, Atlanta, Georgia, told STANLEY LEVISON she was glad to have seen him at a party the previous Wednesday. (u)

She also asked LEVISON for a financial contribution to the campaign fund of DONALD L. HOLLOWELL who was running for Judge of the Superior Court, Atlanta, Georgia. (u)

In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. LEVISON was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position in civil rights. LEVISON's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. ~~(u)~~ ~~(S)~~ ~~(U)~~

A. Summer Community Organization for Political Education
(SCOPE)

(u) [On February 17, 1965, AT T-23 advised that on February 3, 1965,] he was in receipt of a letter addressed to him on letterhead stationery of Southern Christian Leadership Conference. This letter requested [T-23's] assistance (u) for a massive voter registration drive and a political education program. This program was to take place during the summer of 1965 and was to be centered in 75 rural counties and six urban counties in Georgia, South Carolina, Florida and Virginia.

handled (u) [On April 6, 1965, AT T-24 advised that STANLEY LEVISON met with CLARENCE JONES at which time discussion ensued regarding the program adopted by SCLC at the Baltimore, Maryland, meeting. According to LEVISON, he was of the opinion that some selectivity as to priority of issues for action should be exercised and resolved relating to the period April to September. According to LEVISON, he had informed Dr. KING they could not drift into the summer without a definite program. LEVISON felt the program adopted at Baltimore was an enlargement only Source advised that LEVISON considered this program good but that he has certain reservations about spreading its work out into some 70 counties. He considered it unwise and unsafe to spread out the workers so thinly in such a wide and vast area but felt that by concentration in specific areas more could be accomplished. [According to T-24,] JONES stated he had informed KING that the main emphasis for this program has to be to achieve legislative recognition and protection of the right to vote and any boycott action should be secondary.

The June 16, 1965, issue of "The Atlanta Journal", a daily Atlanta newspaper, reported a press conference held by Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., wherein he outlined SCLC plans to send students and professional civil rights workers into six southern states for the purpose of boosting Negro voting and political activity. According to the article, Dr. KING held the press conference jointly with BAYARD RUSTIN, New York Negro leader, who is described as SCOPE Orientation Director, under the overall leadership of HOSEA WILLIAMS. The states identified for a ten week period of activity this summer were Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Alabama and Florida. It was expressed that student workers have been recruited by SCOPE chapters established on college campuses at northern universities and at some southern colleges. It was pointed out that as a general rule the 764 applicants approved for this work were recruited by a screening board composed of the college dean, the chaplain and the student body president from the college where the student was recruited. In addition, some recruits were obtained from churches and labor organizations. To date 42 SCOPE chapters will be assigned to 42 specific counties located in the six southern states. The article advised that the SCOPE period of activity will be divided into three phases which include voter registration, political education and community organization. According to Dr. KING, the only criteria specified by SCLC in recruiting SCOPE workers was that no one be accepted who advocates violent overthrow of the American government.

Another matter supported was the execution of a mass direct action program that will dramatize the issue and accomplish their objectives. According to AT T-25, Dr. KING stated he and his party will be in Selma, Alabama, January 2, 1965, to begin the mass project which had been forbidden by city officials of Selma; however, he indicated his willingness to go to jail in this matter. ~~SECRET~~ (u)

The April 3, 1965, issue of "The Sun", Baltimore, Maryland, daily newspaper, reported that Reverend KING at a press conference announced that the economic boycott of Alabama was one of three stages. The first stage was to contact those major industries planning expansion or plants in Alabama, urging them to suspend their plans until the Civil Rights Acts are complied with by state authorities. The second stage of the boycott calls for action from community leaders as well as the Federal government. This stage would call for the Federal government to withdraw from deposit Federal funds, as well as other individuals to withdraw investments in Alabama firms and institutions. The third stage would call upon the nation to boycott certain specified consumer products. Evidence of a change in racial attitude in order to eliminate this boycott would include ending of the poll tax, voters registration at times convenient to working people, appointment of Negroes to policy making position in state agencies, ending police brutality and enunciation by officials and civic leaders of violence on the part of racists.

The February 13, 1965, issue of the "Atlanta Inquirer", a weekly Atlanta newspaper, reported that Dr. KING, at a high level conference held on February 6, 1965, in New York City established a new department in SCLC known as Operation Dialogue. This operation will be under the direction of HARRY G. BOYTE and the objective is to break down personal racial prejudices through group discussion and conversation. One of the individuals described as participating in this conference at which Operation Dialogue was established was BAYARD RUSTIN.

The May 20, 1965, issue of the "Pittsburgh Post Gazette", daily newspaper at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, reported that Operation Dialogue is now originating and operating a program in 40 cities, including Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The program will include the persuasion of impoverished white people to join the Negro struggle for Negro and human rights. According to the article, objectives are to be accomplished with two or three workers who move into an area and stay for six to eight weeks and in an unobtrusive manner locate underprivileged white people who present potential leadership. These individuals then would be recruited and trained in a school sponsored by SCLC and following this training, would be expected to be leaders in a joint white - Negro effort to obtain a better life for both. He described Operation Dialogue as a group seeking reconciliation of all Americans, Negro and white, to instill in them feeling that they have an obligation to their fellow man and not to ignore those who are hungry and cold.

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED ~~SECRET~~

The records of the New York Secretary of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Spring, 1964, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation. (S) u

On May 25, 1961, another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by James Jackson, a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA. (S) u

MARYLAND COMMITTEE FOR DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS

A confidential source on August 15, 16, and 28, 1961, advised that following a meeting of the Communist Party National Committee at New York City, August 12, 1961, GEORGE MEYERS, Chairman of the Communist Party (CP) of Maryland - D. C., instructed CP members at Baltimore that a committee should be set up to mobilize opposition to the June 5, 1961, decisions of the U. S. Supreme Court concerning the Smith and McCarran Acts. MEYERS instructed that this committee which should be set up at a meeting August 26, 1961, should be composed of non-Party as well as CP members and that the Chairman should be "non-Party but close to the Communist Party." On August 26, 1961, the Maryland Committee for Democratic Rights was set up at Baltimore with the stated purpose of making the public aware of the Supreme Court decisions which in effect would outlaw the CP and what these decisions meant. 1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149).
2. Cited as a Communist front which "is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations and controlled unions" and which "since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents." (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally released September 17, 1950.)

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE
UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

ROBERT RONSTADT, 20515 Tiara Street, Woodland Hills, California, a former member of the Communist Party (CP) in Los Angeles, California, from 1946 to 1952 who furnished information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation from 1949 to 1952 advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a member of the Los Angeles County CP as of September, 1952.

A second source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HCUA" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and coordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

A third, fourth, and fifth source have advised during March, 1962, that CP members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 7, 1964, a sixth source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot", a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the SOUTHERN CONFERENCE FOR HUMAN WELFARE (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 16, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF. ✓

A second source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the New Orleans area, advised on June 2, 1964, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, Communist Party (CP) members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial question.

On June 2, 1964, the second source advised that in the past he has considered JAMES DOMBROWSKI, the Executive Director of the SCEF, to be a communist, if not an actual Communist Party member, because he followed Communist principles.

On July 1, 1965, [redacted]

Georgia, advised that Reverend RALPH D. ABERNATHY, Treasurer of Southern Christian Leadership Conference, announced that he and HOSEA WILLIAMS, Director of Voter Registration,

[redacted] advised he attended this news conference together with other representatives of the local news media

A transcription of the copy of this tape recording revealed that early in the conference Mr. BENNY WELLS, Reporter, Radio Station WGST, Atlanta, asked ABERNATHY
whether there were any Communists in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

ABERNATHY replied "there are no Communists in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. We have in our bylaws and in the constitution that no Communists can be affiliated with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference."

WELLS then inquired of ABERNATHY "what methods do you use to screen people to see whether or not they are Communists?"

ABERNATHY replied "well, we have interviews with them and we check their past records and we even go to some extent to check the FBI files."

"Going back Reverend ABERNATHY to the statement you made that in your screening process for SCLC you sometimes call upon the FBI; how closely do you work with them in your screening?"

When I say the files I don't mean the FBI files are open to us but the files of that committee up there that we are trying to deal with are open and they are open to the public you know and we can find out and we will check with FBI men and they will tell us if they have a Communist background and we don't want anything that is pink much less anything that is red."

RE: SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

On Page 22-A of the July 8, 1965 issue of "The Miami Herald", Miami, Florida newspaper, there is an article reflecting that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) would send ten or twelve "top organizers" to Miami on July 8, 1965, to set up a permanent office of the SCLC.

HARRY BOYTE, a special assistant to MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., said that KING was ready to come to Miami at any time and stage marches down Biscayne Boulevard if necessary to win fair treatment for Negroes.

BOYTE said the staff's first assignment would be to determine whether grievances are justified, and if they are, to organize a grassroots protest movement.

According to the article, BOYTE said he has been surprised at the eagerness of people in Miami "to engage in serious civil disobedience."

One of the complaints which brought the SCLC to Miami came from Richmond Heights residents, who are fighting construction of a new segregated school in their community, BOYTE said; however, there were other problems, revolving around the "deep poverty problems" among Dade County Negroes.

BOYTE said that he had arranged to rent a house for the SCLC in the Greater Miami area, but did not give the address.

The SCLC, according to BOYTE, hopes Miami's problems can be solved through consultation, because Miami can set a pattern for the South.

SUBJECT: SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

Reference is made to my memorandum to you dated earlier today concerning the captioned matter.

Ralph Abernathy, Treasurer of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), Martin Luther King's organization, called a press conference for 7/1/65 in order to read a statement concerning civil rights problems. After he had read the statement, there was a question and answer period. It was during this question period that Abernathy said the SCLC could obtain information from the FBI.

At 6:45 p.m., 7/1/65, SAC Ponder of our Atlanta Office, called and stated that three tape recordings had been made of Abernathy's statements. Radio Station WSB and Radio Station WGST, both of Atlanta, made tape recordings of the questions and answers. In addition, the SCLC made a tape recording of its own. Mr. Ponder stated that he had obtained a copy of the tape recording from Jack Scott, a reporter for Radio Station WSB in Atlanta. SAC Ponder said that this tape had been carefully reviewed and he dictated the following pertinent excerpts.

In response to a question regarding communists in the SCLC, Abernathy replied "There are no communists in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. We have in our bylaws and in the Constitution that no communists can be affiliated with the SCLC."

Question: What methods do you use to screen people to see whether or not they are communists?

Answer: Well, we have interviews with them and we check their past records and we even go to some extent to check the FBI's files.

Question: Going back Reverend Abernathy to the statement you made that in your screening process for SCLC you sometimes call upon the FBI; how closely do you work with them in your screening?

Memorandum to Mr. W. C. Sullivan
Re: SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Answer: Well, if we have a person coming to our staff and we are not sure of his background and his associations, their files are opened. When I say the files, I don't mean the FBI's files are opened to us, but the files of the committee up there that we are trying to deal with are opened. They are open to the public, you know, and we can find out. And we will check with FBI men and they will tell us if they have a communist background. We don't want anything that is pink much less anything that is red.

OBSERVATION:

Abernathy's statement the SCLC gets information from FBI men is an outright lie. I discussed this matter with Mr. Wick of the Crime Records Division in order that he would have the facts and could straighten out the record.

ACTION:

I told Ponder to stay on top of this situation and keep the Bureau advised promptly of pertinent developments.

Re Atlanta airtel and LHM 7/9/65, copies to Birmingham, which reported that the SCLC Convention is scheduled to be held in Birmingham 8/9-13/65.

Birmingham should make plans to afford discreet coverage through established reliable sources of the Convention in order to develop any available information concerning possible communist influences which may be brought to bear upon the Convention. This would likely be through the presence of individuals with subversive backgrounds, and particularly in key positions in the Convention. Coordinate efforts with Atlanta, origin. Among other things, obtain program of Convention which will list officers in most up-to-date fashion.

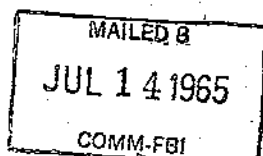

Efforts in this regard must be most discreet and no action taken which could prove embarrassing to the Bureau.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP
CONFERENCE

As set forth in Cleveland memoranda, dated July 16, 1965, captioned Communist Infiltration of the Southern Leadership Conference, Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., is scheduled to be in Cleveland, Ohio, on July 27 and 28, 1965, to help in the voter registration drive currently in progress in predominately Negro areas of Cleveland.

An article in the "Call and Post", Cleveland weekly Negro newspaper, issue of July 24, 1965, stated that Dr. KING will attempt to get the Negroes of Cleveland to stop complaining in private and to use the power of the vote to stem the wave of racial indignities being suffered by Negro residents. The article stated that Dr. KING is expected to speak out about the "shameful disinterest of Negroes" in participating in the Special Voter Registration and Education campaign in Cleveland, which has as its goal the registering of 60,000 unregistered potential voters.

The article listed the following as Dr. KING's itinerary during his Cleveland visit:

Tuesday, July 27, 1965

- 5:00 P. M. - Press conference after arrival at Cleveland airport
- 6:30 P. M. - First of a series of street corner rallies in Negro residential areas
- 7:45 P. M. - Dinner at Sheraton-Cleveland Hotel with civic and civil rights leaders

Wednesday, July 28, 1965

10:00 A. M. to 4:00 P. M. - Series of street corner rallies in various Negro neighborhood communities, with a luncheon at Christ Episcopal Church, Shaker Heights, Ohio

7:00 P. M. - Mass meeting at Cleveland arena at which Dr. KING will make the principal address.

The article stated that Dr. KING is coming to Cleveland after a three-day visit in Chicago. He will leave Cleveland for Philadelphia, New York and Detroit, where he will conclude his northern tour, according to the article.

An article in "The Plain Dealer", daily Cleveland newspaper, issue of July 23, 1965, stated that ten representatives of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING will arrive in Cleveland on July 23, 1965, to assist in the voter registration drive. They also plan to meet with civil rights leaders here to try to analyze problems confronting the city. They will discuss these with Dr. KING when he arrives here July 27, 1965, for a two-day stay. The article stated that at the mass meeting on July 28, 1965, it is expected that Dr. KING will announce a plan of action to be undertaken in Cleveland based on the special report compiled by the advance group.

On July 23, 1965, Mr. RICHARD G. MC KEAN, Assistant Safety Director, City of Cleveland, advised that the Police Department is aware of Dr. KING's itinerary and the Police Department will make the necessary arrangements to see the caravans into the various neighborhoods and the street corner meetings are conducted in an orderly fashion.

Southern Christian Leadership
Conference, Indianapolis Affiliate

Reverend Andrew J. Brown, Pastor, St. John's Missionary Baptist Church, 17th and Martindale, and President of the Indianapolis Affiliate of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (IASCLC) announced through news media on July 9, 1965, that his Affiliate would picket the "Indianapolis Star," which is a daily newspaper published in Indianapolis, Indiana. He stated the picketing would start on July 10, 1965, because of the Star's editorial policy and the fact that every time a Negro is arrested, the newspaper does not follow with full details.

In addition, in a three-quarter-page ad in the "Indianapolis Recorder," a weekly Negro newspaper published in Indianapolis, the IASCLC announced that C. T. Vivian would be in Indianapolis July 10, 1965, to give a sermon at St. John's Missionary Baptist Church, Indianapolis.

On July 10, 1965, C. T. Vivian was observed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation entering the St. John's Missionary Baptist Church. He gave a sermon, the context of which is unknown, and after his sermon, he gathered with approximately 75 other individuals, both Negro and white, across the street in the city park from the offices of the "Indianapolis Star."

Re: IASCLC

It was observed that Vivian was the center of the activity and it appeared he was giving instructions to those individuals in the park. A picket line was then formed around the offices of the "Indianapolis Star," and this picketing continued for approximately one to one and one-half hours. The pickets carried signs: "Why can't you have a Negro columnist?"; "We want to read both sides."; "On no uncertain terms Doctor Martin Luther King is our leader."

The demonstration was disbanded after the Reverend Brown presented an open letter to one of the reporters of the "Indianapolis Star."

It was noted that ~~██████████~~ Vivian took charge of disbanding this group and allowed approximately ten at a time to cross the street with the street light in their favor until all were across in the park and then they were disbanded.

A Special Agent of the FBI obtained a copy of the open letter to the "Indianapolis Star," which was dated July 8, 1965, and is set out as follows:

In reply to your bad Editorial of July 8th, we would like to raise some points of defense for Noble Peace Prize Winner, Martin Luther King.

In the first place you labeled him as "the trouble-making winner of the Nobel Prize." What kind of trouble has Dr. King caused in his fight to break down the barriers of bigotry and discrimination against the Negro people? To whom has he caused trouble? We did not know that those who contend for justice and liberty could cause anyone trouble except those who would deny justice and freedom.

If Dr. King is, as you have stated, a "trouble-maker" in your eyes, then it can only be that you are sympathetic with the forces of prejudice, bigotry and intolerance against whom Dr. King has been leading the struggle on behalf of the Negro people. You are in the same political and philosophical bed as Wallace of Alabama and other segregationists of this country. They, too, consider King a "trouble-maker." Speaking of Dr. King following the "Communist Line," we have sense enough to see that you consistently follow the "Segregationist Line." In the opinion of many there is always something constitutionally wrong with any idea to help the Negro people, but we never hear you espousing any idea to help the Negro without you considering it unconstitutional. As long as Wallace and the other bigots of the South denied the ballot to Negroes you never said a word about it, but the moment Dr. King begins to do something about it he becomes a "trouble-maker" and when Congress considered a bill to convict this injustice this bill is in your opinion unconstitutional. We would like to let you know that in no uncertain terms, Mr. Indianapolis Star, that we the Negro people of Indianapolis understand that behind your mask of hypocrisy and smiles there is a heart as bigoted and prejudiced against the Negro people as is Wallace and the other segregationists of the South.

In the second place you attempt to label Dr. King as a communist simply because he is for a negotiated peace in Viet Nam. This is not only a piece of vicious, mean slander,--but an insult to the intelligence of the Negro people. What do you think we Negroes are, fools? The time is passe' that Negroes will believe something simply because "Mr. Charlie" says it and the time is also over when Negroes are going to allow white people to tell us who our leaders are, or to pick them for us. We want to let you and everyone else know that in no uncertain terms this attempt of yours to discredit Dr. King in the eyes of the Negro people will not work. We know Dr. King is no Communist and we have and will continue to have unshaken confidence in his integrity and leadership.

We are fed up with the white man's strategy of dividing us, keeping his feet on our necks, killing off our real leaders, and setting up before us phony leaders whom he can buy and sell.

Anytime a Negro leader will not dance to the music of the white power-structure of this country, he is dubbed by the press and the other media of communications, which the power-structure controls, as a "trouble-maker" and "communist." This is supposed to make Negro people drop away from him. This sort of thing has kept us for 450 years in bondage to "Mr. Charlie", but we are waking up now. We are not listening to "Mr. Charlie" anymore. We are glad Dr. King is troubling you and your kind. Until we are free we intend to see to it that he continues to trouble you and all others like you, for when the time comes when he no longer troubles you, we will know that he then is no longer-serving us.

After ~~the~~ Vivian's sermon at the St. John's Missionary Church, a Special Agent of the FBI obtained a pamphlet which was published by the IASCLC. The pamphlet was entitled, "Operation US," and indicated this stood for United Strength.

The contents of the pamphlet mentioned above are set forth, in part, as follows:

AIMS

To achieve full citizenship rights and total integration of the Negro in American life.

To stimulate nonviolent mass action to remove the barriers of segregation and discrimination.

WHY ARE WE HERE?

Dr. Martin Luther King wants to do what the white man has said could never be done among Negroes: ORGANIZE and GET TOGETHER.

TO BE BLACK IN AMERICA is unfortunate: to be black in the South is a crime. In the North because we are not united we have no strength to stop - - run-down homes.

POOR EDUCATION that denies us of first class schools, books, and counseling.

POOR HOUSING with urban renewal programs that means Negro removal.

POOR JOB OPPORTUNITY. We are losing out economically in Indianapolis.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

You can have your church, club, union, fraternity, sorority, business, and other community groups to pledge themselves in a cooperative venture to work together for the improvement and enrichment of our lives in this modern urban community.

You can organize a block club and become a part of Dr. King's movement and strive for social justice in the areas of housing, education, employment and other matters pertaining to YOU and US.

LET US GET TOGETHER AND:

Get Jobs
Keep Jobs
Upgrade on Our Jobs
Get Better Homes
Get Better Schools
Get Political Strength

LET US PUSH OPERATION US AND THIS WILL HELP US!

Re Atlanta airtel and LHM 7/13/65, copies to New York, which reported that one Alice Mary Hilton, who is said to be connected with civil rights activities in New York City, had offered to furnish the experiences of her organization (unidentified) to the SCLC. It was indicated that according to an SCLC official, the SCLC would be better prepared to "move into" New York City without making too many mistakes.

It was also reported that James Bevel told Randolph Blackwell, a fellow official of the SCLC, [redacted] [redacted] instructed Bevel to obtain whatever assistance he required and that he, Blackwell, would see that an adequate excuse is made to cover Bevel's absence from the SCLC activities.

On the basis of information furnished, Alice Mary Hilton is unidentifiable in Bufiles. New York should advise the Bureau and Atlanta of information available identifying this individual, the organization which she is connected with, and, particularly, of any subversive information concerning her.

The fact [redacted]

RE: PLANNED VOTER REGISTRATION

On the evening of July 2, 1965, Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. addressed a mass rally of individuals attending the state convention of Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), which was held at Roger's Stadium, Virginia State College, Ettrick, Virginia. It is noted that this rally was open to the public and newspaper figures "an approximate attendance of somewhere between 2,000 and 2,500".

The "Richmond Times-Dispatch", a daily newspaper published at Richmond, Virginia, in an article captioned "Dr. King Calls for End To War in Viet Nam" carried the following news item on July 3, 1965, concerning the speech made by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on July 2, 1965:

"The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. called for a negotiated settlement of the war in Viet Nam at a civil rights rally here Friday night.

"The Nobel peace prize winner said, 'There must be a settlement' even if it means direct negotiations with the Communist Viet Cong. He told an audience of some 2,000 persons attending a state convention of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) that 'the long night of war must be ended.'

"He suggested that civil rights workers should become active in the movement to end the war in Viet Nam.

"He told newsmen after his speech that details of such a program haven't been worked out, but he said one approach would be for civil rights workers to participate in teach-ins on the war.

"Even President Johnson has said there is room for debate,' Mr. King said in response to a question concerning "why he has taken a position different from that of the administration.

"There is no reason why there can't be peace rallies like we have freedom rallies,' Dr. King declared.

"In his speech Dr. King said, 'If life is worth living...We must find an alternative to war and violence.'

"He said 'I certainly am as concerned about seeing the defeat of communism as anybody else, but we won't defeat communism by guns, bombs or gases, but by making democracy work.'

"Then he made the flat statement that 'the war in Viet Nam must be stopped.'

"In discussing civil rights Dr. King said, 'The system of segregation is on its deathbed - the only question now is when it will be totally buried.'

"But he quickly added that Negroes 'are getting a big dose of tokenism.' Negroes are getting just enough integration so that militancy is being replaced by complacency, he explained.

"He said the civil rights movement must now be concentrated on the economic plight of Negroes. He noted that it doesn't mean much for a Negro to be able to go to an integrated restaurant 'if he hasn't the money to take his wife to dinner.'

"There are too many loopholes in the fair employment provisions of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, Dr. King said. 'We must make it clear to business and industry that if they don't respect our persons they won't get our dollars.'

"Turning to the ballot, Dr. King said Negro registration in many Southern communities could easily be doubled. By 'going all out' in this endeavor Virginians may see the day when there will be 10 or 15 Negroes in the State Legislature,' he declared.

"Just before he was introduced Dr. King was presented with a proclamation designating July 2 as Nobel peace prize day in Virginia.

RE: PLANNED VOTER REGISTRATION DRIVE, FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT, VIRGINIA

"Governor Harrison refused to issue such an announcement on the grounds that proclamations are reserved for days having historic and patriotic significance.

"The audience - considerably smaller than the 10,000 that had been predicted - burst into applause when Dr. Milton A. Reid SCLC regional representative, said 'If the governor won't recognize a nobel peace prize winner we can all be happy that his term of office is just about over.'

"In responding Dr. King said he was 'grateful for the proclamation' from 'Governor' Reid."

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN
LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

An article in the "Call and Post", Cleveland, Ohio, weekly Negro newspaper, issue of July 17, 1965, stated that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., will arrive in Cleveland on the evening of July 27, 1965, to spark the voter registration drive of the Special Project Committee for Voter Registration and Citizenship Education which is currently in progress. A dinner meeting which will include local civil rights and civic leaders will be held that evening.

According to the article, Dr. KING will hold a breakfast meeting on the morning of July 28, 1965, with local clergymen. After the breakfast he will be escorted by leaders of the Special Project Committee on a tour of the city. There will be stops in various neighborhoods where Dr. KING will address residents from the platform of a truck and encourage them to register to vote and to vote in the fall elections.

The article stated that Dr. KING's visit will be climaxed by a public rally at the Cleveland Arena on the evening of July 28, 1965. The article reflected that Cleveland will be the second stop on Dr. KING's "People to People" Northern tour in which he is attempting to highlight the civil rights problems of the South. The northern tour will take Dr. KING into Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia and Detroit.

According to the article, the Reverend JAMES BEVEL, a former Cleveland and one of Dr. KING's top assistants in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference will accompany him to Cleveland and all of Dr. KING's top aides will be heard during the mass meeting at the Arena on July 28, 1965.

The article further noted that Dr. KING, in announcing his Cleveland visit stated, "We owe it to ourselves to reciprocate", explaining that the citizens of Cleveland have helped the civil rights movement in the South by their contributions.

The article also stated that at the conclusion of Dr. KING's northern tour, he is to meet with President JOHNSON and present the northern civil rights issues as he found them in each community.

On July 16, 1965, [redacted]

ReATairtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM) 7/19/65, copies to New York, which reported information to the effect that an unidentified woman had donated $25,000 to the SCLC. The check written by the woman in this amount came through the Seed Cliff (phonetic) Methodist Church on Long Island, New York. It is alleged that this woman has donated appreciable amounts to the SCLC in the past and intends to donate $25,000 each year.

It is highly important that the identity of this donor be established and determination made as to whether or not she has any subversive background or connections.

New York is instructed to immediately initiate a discreet, yet searching inquiry, to establish the woman's identity and background.

New York and Atlanta should be alert to information available through established sources which would help in this matter.

Note particularly that it was Stanley Levison who suggested that the SCLC President, Martin Luther King, Jr., telephone thanks to the woman. Any possible connection between this woman and Levison should also be established.

For the future guidance of Atlanta, it is suggested that in the future should a similar situation develop wherein an individual donates an extraordinarily large sum of money to the SCLC leads should promptly be set out by Atlanta, origin, to identify the donor.

Re your airtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM) 7/20/65 which reported on the presence of SCLC Treasurer Ralph Abernathy at an SCLC rally in Indianapolis 7/19/65.

The second paragraph of Page 2 of the LHM reported that on 7/19/65 a Bureau Agent observed Abernathy enter a church where he later delivered an address. There then followed in the LHM an account of the address as reported in the press.

Prior to dissemination, the Bureau deleted the entire second paragraph of Page 2. Note should be taken of the undesirability of reporting the fact that a Bureau Agent made an observation, thus implying surveillance of a legitimate civil rights activity. This is underscored by the fact that Abernathy's presence was public knowledge and so reported by the press. The deleted paragraph therefore added nothing worthwhile to the LHM and could conceivably have been misinterpreted to the possible embarrassment to the Bureau.

The foregoing should be brought to the attention of responsible personnel for their future guidance in handling matters of this nature.

Reurairtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM) 7/19/65 which reported information to the effect that "conditions among personnel of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) were not very good." This information originated with Lillian Hunter, Secretary to Ralph Abernathy, Treasurer of the SCLC. There appear to be marital difficulties between Abernathy and his wife, and Hunter believes that something drastic will eventually develop. Hunter commented that if such a thing happens, the entire SCLC organization would be affected.

Because of the communist influence in the SCLC, your office should watch very closely any situation developing which would bear potential for possible counterintelligence exploitation by the Bureau. Keep the Bureau promptly advised of pertinent developments and feel free to submit any recommendations which may be indicated by the situation as it develops.

The May 4, 1942, issue of "Labor Action," then an official publication of the Workers Party (WP), carried an article which reflected that the WP was formed in April, 1940, as a result of a split within the leadership of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The article stated that when the Hitler-Stalin Pact was signed and Poland invaded, the minority group within the SWP, in proclaiming the formation of the WP, condemned the pact as being imperialistic in nature and stated it would not support either imperialist camp.

The April 25, 1949, issue of "Labor Action" contained an account of the Fifth National Convention of the WP, held March 24-27, 1949, in New York City, which reflected the change of name of the organization from the WP to the Independent Socialist League (ISL) in order to emphasize the character of the group as a propaganda group for the spreading of socialist ideas and not as a full-fledged political party.

The July 14, 1958, issue of "Labor Action," an official publication of the ISL, contained an article captioned, "The ISL Program in Brief." The article indicated: "The ISL stands for socialist democracy and against the two systems of exploitation which now divide the world: capitalism and Stalinism. The ISL, as a Marxist movement, looks to the working class and its ever-present struggle as the basic progressive force in society. The ISL is organized to spread the ideas of socialism in the labor movement and among all other sections of the people. There can be no lasting and genuine democracy without socialism and there can be no socialism without democracy."

The September 22, 1958, issue of "Labor Action" contained an undated statement signed by the Political Committee of the ISL which indicated that the ISL had been dissolved. The statement urged former ISL members to join the Socialist Party-Social Democratic Federation.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

SOCIALIST YOUTH LEAGUE (SYL)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A confidential informant has advised that the Socialist Youth League (SYL) began in 1945 when several militant members of the Young People's Socialist League (YPSL), the youth organization of the Socialist Party, accepted a proposal that they become affiliated with the Workers Party. The first issue of the group's newspaper, "Youth Action for Socialism," in October, 1945, contained an article which indicated that "...Only socialism can answer youth's needs for jobs, peace, education and a fuller life...Our organization is the only national revolutionary youth group in America."

The March 1, 1954, issue of the "Young Socialist Challenge," published as page three of "Labor Action," an official publication of the Independent Socialist League, contained an article concerning the creation of the Young Socialist League (YSL) which pointed out that at a unity conference occurring February 12-14, 1954, at Labor Action Hall, New York, New York, a merger occurred between the YPSL and the SYL. The new organization was named the YSL.

Another confidential informant on June 15, 1954, made available the minutes of the YSL's National Action Committee meeting of April 13, 1954, which reflected that one S. SITEMAN, "Chairman of SP (Socialist Party) Youth Committee," had objected to a statement appearing in "Commerce," a New York University journal, which indicated that the YPSL merged with the SYL to form the YSL. He explained that the YPSL did not merge with anyone, that it continued to exist as the youth section of the Socialist Party. He explained that a small group of the YPSL was dropped, expelled, or suspended from that organization and joined the SYL, which he characterized as the youth group of the "Trotskyite ISL." He explained that after these few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to change its name for its own purposes. U

On April 9, 1956, another confidential informant advised as follows:

The YSL has frequently worked in close sympathetic cooperation with the ISL toward similar objectives, although each major issue given mutual consideration is decided upon by these organizations individually. The YSL serves as an apprenticeship for the ISL, but ISL selection of members from YSL ranks is made on an individual and personal basis. In many instances YSL members are also members of the ISL.

As set forth in Cleveland memoranda dated July 16, 1965, and July 23, 1965, Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., scheduled a visit to Cleveland, Ohio, on July 27 and 28, 1965, to help in the voter registration drive currently in progress in predominately Negro areas of Cleveland.

An article in "The Plain Dealer," daily Cleveland newspaper, issue of July 28, 1965, stated that Dr. KING arrived in Cleveland by airlines from Chicago during the late afternoon of July 27, 1965. He held a brief press conference and proceeded to a public rally at the Alexander Hamilton Recreation Center in Cleveland. The newspaper estimated 1,500 persons attended. After the rally, Dr. KING met with representatives of local civil rights organizations.

CONFERENCE

activities on July 28, 1965, began with a breakfast with local clergymen scheduled for 7:30 AM. However, Dr. KING did not appear until 9:00 AM. The article noted that Dr. KING was visibly fatigued and filled with medication and turned many of the speaking duties over to Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY, described as his top assistant. The article also noted that 12 top officers of the SCLC accompanied Dr. KING to Cleveland.

The article reflected that Dr. KING made appearances at five street corner rallies during the day on July 28, 1965. Four of these appearances were in predominately Negro areas and the speakers appealed to the residents in the area to register to vote and to make sure that they did vote in the fall election.

The other street corner appearance by Dr. KING was on the grounds of the Heights Christian Church, Shaker Heights, Ohio, an exclusive Cleveland suburb. An estimated 250 persons gathered for this meeting. Approximately 20 pickets sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of White People (NAAWP) marched on the sidewalk bordering the church grounds during Dr. KING's appearance. They carried placards alledging communist affiliations on the part of KING and misconduct by demonstrators during SCLC marches in the South.

Sergeant [redacted] Cleveland Police Department, advised on July 28, 1965, that there were no incidents or arrests in connection with the above picketing.

b6
b7C

Dr. KING's public appearances in Cleveland ended with a public rally at the Cleveland Arena on the evening of July 28, 1965.

Sergeant [redacted] stated that he had learned that the National Council of Churches had paid $1,000.00 for the rental of the Arena and that a capacity crowd of approximately 10,000 persons was expected.

b6
b7C

The above meeting was scheduled to begin at 8:00 PM, but Dr. KING and the SCLC personnel accompanying him on the tour, did not arrive until about 9:20 PM. Sergeant [redacted] estimated that the Arena was no more than one third filled for the above meeting.

RE: MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.;
COMMONIST INFILTRATION OF THE
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP
CONFERENCE

An estimated 45 pickets sponsored by the NAAWP marched on the sidewalk outside the Arena from 7:30 PM until 8:30 PM. JOHN BARBIC, who identified himself as acting head of the NAAWP stated that some of the pickets also represented local groups known as the White Citizens Council and the American Conservative Society.

Sergeant [] stated that actually most of the pickets belonged to all three of the above groups. He stated that the activity of these groups is restricted to periodic picketing and the passing out of literature and there have never been any disturbances created by pickets from these organizations. Sergeant [] stated that the picketing on July 28, 1965, resulted in no arrests and the only incident occurred when a Negro took a NAAWP picket sign from a 10 year old white boy and threw it to the ground.

b7c

Sergeant [] stated that a detail of Cleveland Police officers had accompanied Dr. KING throughout his stay in Cleveland and there were no incidents reported by these officers. He further stated that Dr. KING was accompanied by members of his staff at his various appearances and there were no representatives from local civil rights groups in the KING party.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.;
COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP
CONFERENCE

As set forth previously in memoranda under the above captions, the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., is scheduled to be in Cleveland on July 27 and 28, 1965, to help in the voter registration drive currently in progress in predominately Negro areas of Cleveland.

An article in "The Plain Dealer," Cleveland daily newspaper, issue of July 25, 1965, stated that a vanguard of 12 men, who will assist Dr. KING in his voter registration drive, arrived in Cleveland on the evening of July 24, 1965. The advance group of four whites and eight Negroes are planning street rallies, door knocking and other ways to mobilize citizens of Cleveland to vote. According to the article, they plan to help both whites and Negroes. ANDREW MARRISETT, who was identified as the leader of the group, stated that they would try to contact as many people as possible before Dr. KING arrives here on July 27, 1965, from Chicago.

The article further stated that JOHN BARBIC, identified as president of the Cleveland National Association for the Advancement of White People, announced that his group, with support from the White Citizens Council and the National Christian Conservative Society, will picket two of Dr. KING's public appearances in Cleveland. BARBIC announced that picketing would be at the Heights Christian Church, 17300 Van Aken Boulevard, Shaker Heights, where Dr. KING is scheduled to make an outdoor address on July 28, 1965, and outside the Cleveland Arena where a public rally will be held that same evening.

On July 26, 1965, Sergeant [redacted]
[redacted] Cleveland Police Department, advised

JOHN BARBIC. BARBIC advised the Police Department that there would be an estimated 15 to 20 persons taking part in the picketing on streets adjoining the Heights Christian Church on July 28, 1965. He stated that they have about 50 persons who have indicated they are willing to participate in picketing at the Cleveland Arena. BARBIC further stated that they do not anticipate any disturbances of any kind and that their picketing will consist of marching with placards. He stated there will be no speeches on the scene and they will not attempt to disrupt the meeting. He said literature will be passed out.

Sergeant [] stated that BARBIC's groups have picketed the appearance of Dr. KING and others in Cleveland in the past and there have been no disturbances as a result of this picketing. Sergeant [] stated that there have been no indications that any demonstrations or marches are planned during the course of Dr. KING's visit and his activities will consist of conferring with local civil rights leaders and making public addresses.

On July 21, 1965, Confidential Informant PH T-1, who is knowledgeable in racial matters in the Philadelphia, Pa., area, advised that a meeting was held at the Fellowship House, Philadelphia, Pa., on Tuesday, July 20, 1965, to form an inter-religious and bi-racial committee in connection with a visit of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., to Philadelphia, Pa., on August 2 and 3, 1965. Among these groups invited to the meeting were representatives of the Fellowship House, the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), the Philadelphia Council of Churches, the North Philadelphia United, the Jewish Community Relations Council (JCRC), the Anti-Defamation League, the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, and the American Jewish Committee. No representatives of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) were in attendance.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP
CONFERENCE:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

X^u [Confidential Informant PH T-1] stated it was his personal opinion that KING's tour was not needed in Philadelphia since the present public attitude at this time is pro civil rights, and many of the religious and social agencies in this field are well beyond the elementary steps proposed by Dr. KING. He felt that a forty-eight-hour tour could not do anything lasting, and could possibly cause problems, especially since CECIL MOORE, leader of the Philadelphia Branch of the NAACP, could possibly call a counter-demonstration to steal the headlines from KING and his organization. Such action might increase tension as well as develop an open rift in the civil rights movement.

u X [Confidential Informant PH T-1] advised that several of the Jewish representatives were hesitant about officially supporting the meeting since they could not be placed in a position of playing favorites with certain Negro groups or leaders. It was agreed at the meeting that the sponsoring group would be composed of citizens, rather than agencies, to obviate the necessity of securing board action of these agencies to be officially represented. The representatives of the Jewish groups also did not want to be involved in the affair, but could not be placed in a position of not cooperating with the Episcopal Diocese and the Philadelphia Council of Churches.

[According to Confidential Informant PH T-1, X^u many of the members of the committee are well motivated and sincere but politically naive.

u X [Confidential Informant PH T-1] stated it was announced that $1,250 to cover initial expenses of the tour had been obtained from The Fellowship Commission, Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, Fair Housing Council of Philadelphia, and the Fellowship House.

[Confidential Informant PH T-1] ^{Ku} advised that MAURICE FAGIN, Executive Director, Philadelphia Fellowship Commission indicated the Fellowship Commission loaned the group $200 or $250, but expected to have it paid back. Neither FAGIN nor the Fellowship Commission participated in the meeting of July 20, 1965.

[According to Confidential Informant PH T-1] ^{Ku} the group was told that ninety per cent of the funds collected would stay in Philadelphia, and the remaining ten per cent would go to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. No explanation was given as to how the Philadelphia share would be divided or used.

An organizing manual was distributed to all present, a copy of which is attached. ^{Ku}

[Confidential Informant PH T-1] ^{Ku} advised that the tour will center around an appointment with Mayor JAMES H. J. TATE of Philadelphia and any other officials designated by the Mayor. Local leaders will accompany Dr. KING, who will present to the Mayor a series of "demands."

The tentative schedule for Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., in Philadelphia is as follows:

MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1965:

8:30 a.m.

Breakfast at Fellowship House with approximately two-hundred representatives of inter-group agencies, labor and religious movements. At this time a prepared statement will be presented to Dr. KING by the local leaders, at which time KING will respond.

NORTHERN CITY TOUR

July 24 - August 4, 1965

Organizing Manual

This manual is designed to give you information you will need regarding the Southern Christian Leadership Conference Northern City Tour and to help you prepare for the event.

The time is short. If your community and the forces of good will among you are to make the most of Dr. Martin Luther King's visit, an intensive job of organization and promotion must be undertaken immediately.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE TOUR?

The staff of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, led by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., will tour several Northern cities this summer, spending an average of two days in each, to:

- Acquaint ourselves with the leadership of the civil rights movement and the forces of good will in the community.
- Get a first hand picture and understanding of some of the problems faced in the Northern city, by visiting local communities and talking with local leaders.
- Assist local leadership in interpreting the issues of the movement to a broader base of the community through a tour of Negro and selected white communities with frequent rallies on street corners or other appropriate places.
- Rally the support of a coalition of the forces of good will around common goals.

WHO SPONSORS THE TOUR?

S.C.L.C. hopes that the broadest possible coalition of the forces of good will in the community - church, civil rights, labor, student, civic, fraternal and social organizations - will cooperate in planning and executing this effort.

We believe that such a coalition of conscience exists around civil rights and related issues in most northern communities; we are convinced that an effective assault on the complex problems of our large urban centers requires the united and coordinated activity of all such groups.

THE PROPOSED TOUR SCHEDULE

CHICAGO - Saturday, Sunday and Monday
July 24, 25 and 26

CLEVELAND - Tuesday and Wednesday, July 27 & 28

BROOKLYN, NEWARK, HARLEM - Thursday, Friday &
Saturday, July 29, 30 & 31

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

THE PROPOSED TOUR SCHEDULE (continued)

PHILADELPHIA - Monday, August 2

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Tuesday & Wednesday,
August 3 & 4.

SUGGESTED FORMAT FOR THE TOUR

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

First Day

1. Breakfast with the combined civil rights, church, labor, etc., leaders
 - a. General explanations of community problems by leaders (impromptu, brief and instructive)
 - b. Prepared statement on community problems presented by a representative of the combined leadership
 - c. Response by Dr. King
2. Meeting with ALL the clergy
3. Tour and street corner rallies

Second Day

1. Tour and street corner rallies
2. Meeting with the Mayor and other public officials (attended by a cross section of the local leadership and Dr. King.
3. Mass Rally - To report on tour and meeting and to raise funds for present or future coalition efforts around common goals.

SUGGESTIONS FOR ORGANIZING THE TOUR

1. PROMOTION

Because time is so short, the success of this project will depend largely upon intensive and extensive promotion and public relations work. For this reason, we recommend that a competent public relations consultant be hired to manage promotion of the tour (to be paid out of the proceeds).

Such a person should, with the help of an adequate staff of volunteers, be asked to undertake such things as the following:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

1. LEAFLET drafting, printing and distribution.
2. POSTER drafting, printing and distribution (e.g. Dr. Martin Luther King to speak here on this corner - Wednesday -- 11:30 A.M.)
3. Draft and Disseminate spot radio announcements.
4. Secure and dispatch sound trucks for pre-tour build up.
5. Prepare press releases and arrange press conferences as plans develop.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

II. ARRANGEMENTS

May we suggest that the following kinds of details be handled by the sponsors as a whole:

1. Contact all community leaders to solicit their participation and support.
2. Select site for leadership breakfast.
3. Select sites for street corner rallies.
4. Secure necessary permits.
5. Select site for Mass Meeting.
6. Arrange for adequate loud speaker systems at all rally sites.
7. Organize advance teams to precede the main body at each rally site with music, loud-speaker and platform truck.
8. Secure appointment with the Mayor and public officials.
9. Agree on issues to be focused upon.
10. Set up Fund Raising Committee to handle the collection, counting and banking of funds.
11. Compile and publicize a complete itinerary of tour activities.
12. Draft plans for immediate follow-up of the People to People Tour by the coalition groups.

This list is by no means comprehensive. Use it only as a guide line to the kind of detail that is necessary for the success of a project like this. You may choose to add or eliminate several items as your planning goes forward.

If you have any questions to ask or suggestions to make as you plan and execute this project, feel free to call the People To People Tour Office listed on the cover or otherwise contact The Rev. Mr. Fauntroy, the Rev. Mr. Young or Dr. King.

Southern Christian

Reverend Andrew J. Brown, Pastor, St. John's Missionary Baptist Church, 17th and Martindale, Indianapolis, Indiana, and President of the Indianapolis Affiliate of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (IASCLC) announced through news media on July 19, 1965, that the Reverend Ralph Abernathy, assistant to civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, will speak in Indianapolis on July 19, 1965. He stated the rally was called to further organize the Negro Community for combating racial discrimination. Incl.

The rally termed "Operation U. S. (United Strength)" will be in the St. John's Missionary Baptist Church. The rally was to begin at 7:30 p.m. and sponsored by IASCLC.

The announcement stated Reverend Abernathy would give instructions on channeling the efforts of black clubs or other community agencies toward organizing for non-violent mass action to remove the barriers of segregation and discrimination from the goal of full citizenship and total integration into American life for Negroes.

The announcement continued by stating that specific targets of the drive would be "police brutality and harassment, government which allows landlords to charge high rent for run-down dwellings, educational systems that deprive Negroes of first class schools, books and counseling, urban renewal programs which mean only Negro removal and job discrimination that keeps Negroes in the worst wage and work conditions.

Re: IASCLC

The announcement stated Dr. Abernathy will come to Indianapolis from Denver, Colorado.

The "Indianapolis Star," a daily newspaper, published in Indianapolis under the date of July 20, 1965, and captioned "Kings Nonviolence Policy is Praised" carried the following story:

"The Rev. Ralph Abernathy, top aide of Negro civil rights leader Martin Luther King, said here last night that King has pursued a nonviolence policy which has prevented racial bloodshed.

"The Rev. Mr. Abernathy, executive vice-president and treasurer of King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference, called Dr. King 'a second Moses' and said that King's preachings have kept Negroes from 'striking gack' and joining 'violent groups like the Black Muslims.'

"THE SPEAKER addressed about 300 persons at St. John's Missionary Baptist Church, 1701 Martindale Avenue. All but about 20 were Negroes.

"The Rev. Mr. Abernathy charged that from the time the Declaration of Independence proclaimed the equality of all men, 'America has been living the life of a hypocrite.'

"He said the United States is doomed unless racial discrimination and poverty are wiped out. 'The rest of the world in saying 'Put up or shut up,' he said.

Re: IASCLC

"APPROPRIATIONS for President Johnson's war on poverty would have to be 'increased 100 times to be effective,' the Rev. Mr. Abernathy said, adding that most local poverty projects are failures because the directors 'usually are rich white men who never have known hunger and Negroes usually are only figureheads in the organization.'

"The Rev. Mr. Abernathy emphasized that King 'is not a Communist and the civil rights movement is not Communist.' He said that the civil rights movement is American in origin and has not been fomented by outsiders.

"DR. KING'S No. 1 AIDE, scheduled to speak at 7:30 p.m., did not arrive at the church until about 9:30 p.m. The Rev. Andrew J. Brown, minister at St. John's said Abernathy had missed his plane.' Abernathy failed to make a scheduled appearance here several weeks ago.

"The Rev. Mr. Brown, director of the Central Indiana Christian Leadership Conference, the SCLC affiliate in Indianapolis, spoke while the crowd waited for the Rev. Mr. Abernathy. He said the civil rights movement here 'is at a dangerous point because both whites and Negroes are complacent.'

"THE REV. Mr. Brown said that 'by Aug. 30 we want to march and let our grievances be known. If we can get 20,000 people to march once, we'll never have to march again,' he said.

"He attacked the proposed plan for an elevated Interstate Inner Loop, claiming it will create a 'Chinese wall' that will lower property values and create slums.

Re: IASCLC

"He said he opposes the sale of the city's only Federal public housing project, Lockefield Gardens, to Indiana University for use as a dormitory because 'Negroes would then be spread to all corners of the city and our strength would be broken up.'"

The program for the meeting showed that the next meeting of the IASCLC would be held on Monday, July 26, 1965, at 7:30 p.m., at the Pleasant Union Baptist Church, Eugene and Barnes Streets, Indianapolis, Indiana.

ReBuairtel 7/23/65 which instructed appropriate investigation be conducted in an effort to identify a woman apparently located on Long Island, New York, who had donated $25,000 to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), and who intends to make similar donations each year.

The following correspondence is being directed to the attention of recipient offices for assistance it might be, particularly to the New York Office, in identifying the unknown woman.

Atlanta airtel and letterhead memorandum 1/18/65, copies to New York "Martin Luther King, Jr., SM - C" reported on a (FNU) [redacted] apparently from the New York City area, who had proposed giving $5,000 to the SCLC annually. Bulet 1/26/65 to New York and Atlanta in the King caption. directed investigation aimed at identifying the [redacted] b6 b7C

New York should insure that the matter of identifying the donor of the $25,000 is given prompt and continuing attention. This represents an investigative challenge which the Bureau feels confident the New York Office will be able to successfully meet. Any information emanating from Atlanta sources which would be helpful should be promptly furnished the New York Office.

New York has been carried as origin in this matter. It is noted, however, that the SCLC headquarters is at Atlanta, Georgia. Effective with the receipt of instant communication origin is being changed to Atlanta. New York should thoroughly review its file and insure that Atlanta is furnished copies of all pertinent correspondence not previously received by Atlanta. Atlanta should direct an appropriate communication to auxiliary offices advising of the change in origin.

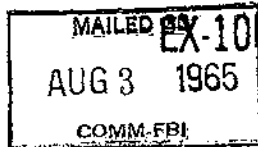

The following observations are being made for the future guidance of the Atlanta Office in preparation of reports in instant and similar matters.

Pages B-G contain leads for numerous offices. On 26 separate occasions the expression "Will check Indices... and furnish any pertinent subversive references" was used. It is suggested that much needless typing could have been avoided by the use of a general instruction prefacing the leads.

On page H Location column information is lacking for T-13. Same applicable relative to T-23 and T-27 on page I. Reason for concealing source lacking for T-23, T-27, T-31, all on page I; and T-32 and T-35 on page J. (U)

UPI A99N AJ
 KING--WITH RACIAL

ATLANTA, JULY 1 (UPI)--AN AIDE CONTENDED TODAY THAT "THERE ARE NO COMMUNISTS" IN DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING'S SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCLC).

THE SPOKESMAN, REV. RALPH D. ABERNATHY, TREASURER AND VICE PRESIDENT OF THE SCLC, SAID THE ORGANIZATION CHECKS RECORDS OF NEW STAFF MEMBERS WITH THE FBI.

THE FBI IN WASHINGTON SAID THIS WAS "ABSOLUTELY UNTRUE. FBI FILES ARE CONFIDENTIAL."

ABERNATHY SAID HE DIDN'T MEAN THAT FBI FILES "ARE OPEN TO US," BUT THAT SCLC OFFICIALS CHECKED WITH INDIVIDUAL FBI AGENTS REGARDING PROSPECTIVE EMPLOYEES.

THE FBI REFUSED COMMENT ON WHETHER SCLC OFFICIALS HAD ASKED FOR INFORMATION REGARDING ANY POLITICAL AFFILIATIONS OF ANYONE CONNECTED WITH THE INTEGRATION GROUP.

EARLIER THIS WEEK AN ALABAMA LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE CHARGED THE STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE WAS COMMUNIST-DOMINATED AND ACCUSED KING OF BEING A "FALSE PROPHET OF THE FAR LEFT."

THE LEGISLATIVE GROUP SAID KING HIMSELF PROBABLY WAS NOT A COMMUNIST, BUT ACCUSED HIM OF BEING ADVISED BY COMMUNISTS, IF NOT ACTUALLY CONTROLLED BY THEM.

YESTERDAY MAYOR RICHARD DALEY OF CHICAGO SAID HIS POLICE FORCE HAS EVIDENCE COMMUNISTS HAVE HELPED WITH DEMONSTRATIONS IN THE MIDWEST CITY.

"WE DON'T NEED THE COMMUNISTS OR ANYBODY ELSE TO TELL US TO STAND UP AND FIGHT FOR OUR FREEDOM," ABERNATHY SAID AT A NEWS CONFERENCE. "THERE ARE NO COMMUNISTS IN THE SCLC."

ABERNATHY THEN DESCRIBED HOW THE SCLC SCREENS PROSPECTIVES STAFF MEMBERS WHEN IT IS "NOT SURE OF BACKGROUND."

"WE WILL CHECK WITH FBI MEN AND THEY WILL TELL US IF THEY (THE PROSPECTIVE STAFF MEMBERS) HAVE COMMUNIST BACKGROUNDS," ABERNATHY SAID. "WE DON'T WANT ANYTHING PINK, MUCH LESS RED."

"WE ARE AMERICAN CITIZENS, NOT AFRICANS," HE SAID. "WE'RE GOING TO DIE AMERICAN CITIZENS. WE ARE GOING TO BE LOYAL TO THIS COUNTRY."

ReAirtel to Bureau and Philadelphia, 7/31/65, "Martin Luther King, Jr., SM - C; Cominfil SCLC, IS - C."

It was reported that King, head of the SCLC, had conferred with two of his staff, Walter Fauntroy and Andrew Young, concerning the desirability of the SCLC taking the Northern Tour to Philadelphia. In discussing the current civil rights movement in Philadelphia, King pointed out that he had spoken to Cecil (not further identified) who mentioned that a woman high in the leadership is a communist.

It would appear as though the "Cecil" referred to may be Cecil Moore, a Philadelphia leader of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

It would be extremely desirable to determine, in connection with the Bureau's investigation of the communist influence in racial matters, the identity of the woman referred to, what, if any, position she may have in the Communist Party (CP), what position she has in the civil rights movement and what influence she has in the movement.

Philadelphia should attempt to conduct the necessary investigation which would serve to obtain the desired information.
Consider the possibility of the woman being [redacted] a Communist Party member who is active in the civil rights movement. Also ReBulet to Birmingham and Atlanta 7/15/65, which instructed Birmingham to make plans to afford discreet coverage through established reliable sources of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference Convention scheduled for Birmingham 8/9-13/65. Emphasis was to be placed upon obtaining information concerning possible communist influences which may be brought to bear upon the Convention. This would likely be through the presence of individuals with subversive backgrounds, particularly those in key positions at the Convention. (u)

It is imperative that there is discreet coverage to develop information concerning individuals with a subversive background who attend the Convention. In line with the foregoing, the New York Office should furnish Birmingham with photographs and descriptions of such key individuals of a subversive background who have present or former association with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, as Stanley David Levison, Hunter Pitts O'Dell, Clarence Jones, Harry Wachtel, and Bayard Rustin. Physical surveillance should also be considered for the purpose of establishing the departure of such key individuals for the Convention. This would be particularly applicable as relating to Levison and O'Dell, especially in view of the most recent information obtained by the New York Office that O'Dell was to further immerse himself in the civil rights movement on behalf of the Communist Party. Specifically, it was desired that photographs and descriptions of such key individuals as Stanley David Levison and Hunter Pitts O'Dell be forwarded by New York to Birmingham. (U)

The Bureau is extremely desirous of obtaining photographic evidence to reveal personal association between King, Levison, and O'Dell. While there is as yet no indication that O'Dell will be at the convention, coverage of him by the New York Office must be effected to insure that if he does travel to Birmingham, appropriate investigation might then be conducted by Birmingham. Birmingham is instructed to immediately make arrangements for possible photographic surveillance which might result in obtaining photographs of the three principals mentioned above while in contact with each other. Of course, photographs of Levison and/or O'Dell with any of King's staff would also be desired. (X) (U)

Because of the most sensitive nature of instant investigation, SECURITY IS PARAMOUNT, and no action should be taken which could cause embarrassment to the Bureau or divulge interest in the convention and its participants as such. The Bureau is fully cognizant of the difficulties which might need be surmounted in order to obtain photographs desired. COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On July 29, 1965, PH T-1 furnished a letter from the "Philadelphia Committee For Martin Luther King's Tour," indicating Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and his staff would visit Philadelphia on the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) - Northern City People-to-People Tour on August 2 and 3, 1965.

PH T-1 stated this proposed tour has caused several splits in the Negro community in Philadelphia. The Baptist Ministers, Reverend LEON SULLIVAN and CECIL B. MOORE, President of the Philadelphia Branch, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) all oppose Dr. KING's visit. In other cities in which the tour is to be made, it has been reported that the SCLC takes 85 per cent of the money raised, leaving 15 per cent for the local sponsors. In Philadelphia, the SCLC will take only 10 per cent of the money raised, leaving 90 per cent for the local sponsors. In addition, if there should be any financial loss on the tour, this will be absorbed by SCLC.

PH T-1 indicated that opposition to Dr. KING's tour of Philadelphia is based on rivalries for positions of leadership, on the loss of funds local civil rights groups would suffer to Dr. KING, and to the feeling of local civil rights leaders that their programs are progressing satisfactorily in Philadelphia and Dr. KING's visit will not enhance these programs at all.

On July 29, 1965, PH T-2 advised there was opposition among Negro groups in Philadelphia to Dr. KING visiting Philadelphia on August 2 and 3, 1965. Some Negro leaders feel Dr. KING will draw from Philadelphia money which could be used by local civil rights groups and other leaders oppose the visit due to rivalry over leadership positions. CECIL B. MOORE, President, Philadelphia Branch NAACP, plans to make a public attack against Dr. KING's visit to Philadelphia by stating that Dr. KING is not needed in Philadelphia.

Lieutenant [redacted] Philadelphia Police Department, advised SA [redacted] on July 29, 1965, that CECIL B. MOORE implied that the NAACP would probably take some type of action to harass or embarrass Dr. KING in Philadelphia on Tuesday, August 3, 1965, during his street corner appearances. MOORE did not spell out the tactics to be used. MOORE has made statements to the press, radio and TV that Dr. KING is not needed or welcome in Philadelphia. b6 b7C

"The Philadelphia Inquirer," a Philadelphia daily newspaper, in its Final City Edition, on July 30, 1965, on page 10, column 4, carried an article entitled, "Moore Assails Two-Day Visit Here of Dr. KING." This article indicated that CECIL B. MOORE, President, Philadelphia Chapter, NAACP, blasted the planned Philadelphia visit of Dr. KING as an attempt by "the egghead white power structure" to divide local Negroes. MOORE attacked both Dr. KING and the "appeasers, social climbers and whites who have contributed to the $20,000 Dr. KING has taken out of Philadelphia without accounting."

The article also stated that earlier in the day Representative ADAM CLAYTON POWELL of New York said he had advised Dr. KING that "he might have trouble in Philadelphia. CECIL MOORE has 30,000 members of the NAACP there."

Philadelphia after he was warned of "unpleasant repercussions" in a telephone conversation with CECIL B. MOORE, President, Philadelphia Chapter, National Association For the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). Doctor KING was reported to be willing to change his mind about the cancellation if the sponsors of his visit were persuasive enough. With this possibility in mind, some 80 members of the sponsoring group met in closed session at the Fellowship House, 1521 West Girard Avenue, most of the day on July 31, 1965, in an attempt to resolve the impasse. CECIL B. MOORE declared that the people who were sponsoring Doctor KING's visit to Philadelphia do not represent anybody. The Negro leaders of Philadelphia were not consulted about Doctor KING's planned visit and that he, MOORE, was not the only one who was ignored in this regard.

"The Philadelphia Inquirer," in a late edition on August 1, 1965, page one, section two, carried an article entitled, "KING Reschedules Trip to Phila., Will Greet Pickets at Girard Wall." This article stated that after a full day of secret, on-again off-again negotiations, it was reported shortly before midnight on July 31, 1965, that Doctor KING would visit Philadelphia on August 2, 3, 1965, as originally scheduled.

On August 1, 1965, a representative of the Philadelphia Police Department advised that Doctor KING arrived in Philadelphia at 9:07 p.m., this date, after which he and his party went to the Sheraton Hotel where they will stay during the tour.

Doctor KING's schedule for August 2, 1965, includes a breakfast meeting at Fellowship House at 8:30 a.m., a meeting with local clergy at 11 a.m., a meeting with Civil Rights leaders at 2:30 p.m., and two private fund raising meetings from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m.

[PH T-4 advised on August 1, 1965, ^{Xu} that one of the above fund raising meetings would be held at the home of [redacted] b6 b7C [redacted] PH T-4 also advised that in his opinion Doctor KING's visit had now become a joint venture, involving CECIL B. MOORE and this minimized or eliminated the chance of any violence or counter-picketing of the tour. Xu ~~Xu~~ [On August 1, 1965, PH T-5 advised] that CECIL B. MOORE may not be happy with Doctor KING's visit to Philadelphia but he has accepted it. ~~X~~ PH T-5 does not know what concessions Doctor KING may have made to MOORE to overcome MOORE's opposition. ~~uX~~ PH T-5 speculated that Doctor KING will probably support MOORE in seeking the admission of Negroes to Girard College on terms laid down by MOORE. Doctor KING will retain his non-violent philosophy in the matter. MOORE personally believes in non-violence but he cannot be moderate when addressing the Negro residents in the area of Girard College.

~~uX~~ [On August 2, 1965, PH T-4 advised] that about 900 persons were present for the breakfast meeting with Doctor KING on this date. Mrs. GOLDIE WATSON presided over the meeting. Doctor KING spoke and said that due to the help he had received in the South from Northern people he had come North to help the leaders of the civil rights movement, to lend his moral support, and to help raise funds for the local civil rights organizations. CECIL B. MOORE was not present at this meeting.

~~uX~~ [PH T-4 also advised] that at this meeting the following schedule of the tour was announced:

August 2, 1965

Doctor KING to meet with clergymen at Fellowship House immediately after the breakfast meeting ended.

| 1:30 p.m. | Press conference at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel |

| 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. | Receptions in private homes for purpose of raising funds. (WILLIAM MEEK announced that the funds will be left in Philadelphia and will be administered by a representative committee.) |

6:45 p.m. Outdoor rally, 22nd Street and Columbia Avenue. From this rally, Doctor KING and all who join him will march to the 8 p.m. rally at Grace Baptist Church, Broad and Berks Streets.

It was pointed out that the schedule was not complete, since meetings with the Mayor and other officials had not yet been arranged.

On August 2, 1965, a Philadelphia Radio Station announced during a news broadcast that Mayor JAMES H. J. TATE was out of town and his representative would not meet with Doctor KING during the tour.

On August 2, 1965, PH T-6 was advised [redacted] that a few Black Nationalist were coming to Philadelphia on August 3, 1965, from New York City. They plan to hear MARTIN LUTHER KING speak at Girard College. If KING is not as strong in his statements as CECIL MOORE, the Black Nationalists plan to heckle KING. Xu

In view of the large sum of money involved, the possibility of some communist relationship thereto and the further possibility of some element of illegality present, recipient offices, particularly Atlanta, should be most alert to any additional information available through established sources which would serve to further inform concerning this matter. Keep the Bureau promptly advised of all pertinent information and information which may be disseminated should be submitted by letterhead memoranda.

For the future guidance of Atlanta, it is suggested that pertinent information such as that contained in reference communications, should be furnished the New York Office for information inasmuch as the New York Office sensitive coverage concerning matters pertaining to the SCLC and individuals involved may develop information which would assist in evaluating data being received from Atlanta's sensitive sources.

For the information of the Bureau, LEVISON is now on vacation, but is due to return to New York on 8/8/65, and in view of his plans to go to Birmingham on 8/9/65, Special Agents of the NYO will conduct a surveillance at New York Kennedy Airport to make certain that he takes his scheduled flight. (U)

As far as coverage of HUNTER PITTS O'DELL is concerned, conditions in Harlem, the residence of O'DELL, are such that a full time surveillance is prohibited, therefore, a surveillance will be conducted at the New York Kennedy Airport on 8/9/65, to determine whether or not he takes a flight to Birmingham. (U)

The characterization of LEVISON was furnished by [NY 694-S*] (S) (U)

This LHM is classified "~~Secret~~" because it contains information from NY 3810-S*, NY 4092-S* and [NY 694-S*] (S) (U). The first two sources furnish information of a highly confidential nature concerning racial matters in the New York area and the Communist infiltration thereof. The last source furnished a concentration of information in the characterization of STANLEY LEVISON. In order to protect these sources, the "Secret" classification is utilized. (S) (U)

Communist Infiltration of the
Southern Christian Leadership Conference

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), in July, 1963. In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (S) (U)

Pretext inquiry at 124 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, New York, on 8/9/65, reflected that the Church Army Training Center is used to train workers of the Episcopal Church for work in the Metropolitan New York area, and Trinity House is a residence connected with the Holy Trinity Church (Episcopal), located on the corner of Montague Street and Clinton Street, Brooklyn, New York, adjacent to the aforementioned Church Army Training Center.

On 7/31/65, NY 3810-S* advised that an attempt was made to contact the STEIN at NYC telephone number 227-7695. At that time, the caller was told that the STEIN was gone for the weekend and would return on Monday, 8/2/65.

A pretext call to NYC telephone number 227-7695 on 8/5/65, reflected that that telephone number is a NYC number for the Grace Church (Episcopal) (VAN VORST), 268 Second Street, Jersey City, New Jersey.

NY 100-1456
NY 100-153735

On 8/9/65, it was determined by inquiry of an unidentified woman at the office of the Church Army in the USA, 157 Montague Street, Brooklyn, New York, a part of the above mentioned Church Army Training Center, 124 Pierrepont Street, Brooklyn, New York, that WILLIAM STEIN is currently employed at the Grace Church, Erie and Second Streets, Jersey City, New Jersey, and may be reached during the day at NYC telephone numbers BA 7-7695 or 659-2211 or at his residence in the evening at area 201-JO 2-2038. She added that STEIN will be working in Jersey City at the Grace Church "vacation school" until about the beginning of September, 1965, at which time he will return to the Church Army Training Center, Brooklyn, for reassignment.

It is to be noted that telephone number BA 7-7695 is the same as telephone number 227-7695, set forth above, however, as of August 10, 1965, telephone number 659-2211 was listed as a non-working number as of that time.

On 6/21/65, NY 3810-S* advised that STEIN stated on 6/21/65, that he is a commissioned Episcopal lay minister.

A review of the NYO indices failed to reflect any information identifiable with WILLIAM STEIN.

Records of the NYCPD, reviewed on 8/3/65, at the request of SA DAVID A. JENKINS, failed to reflect any arrest record identifiable with WILLIAM STEIN.

Confidential informants of the NYO, who are familiar with certain phases of Communist Party activity in the NYC area, advised during July and August, 1965, that they had no information pertaining to WILLIAM STEIN.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

On August 2, 1965, a telephone call was received at the Philadelphia Office of the FBI from an individual who refused to identify himself. This individual said he was one of a group who had come from Atlanta, Ga.; that another group from Virginia was also in Philadelphia; and that both groups were going to make an attempt on the life of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING at the rally to be held at 5:30 p.m. on August 2, 1965, at 22nd and Diamond Streets, Philadelphia. When detailed information was sought, the caller terminated the call.

The above information was furnished to the Philadelphia Police Department on August 2, 1965.

On August 2, 1965, Inspector [redacted] Philadelphia Police Department, advised Special Agent [redacted] that members of Dr. KING's party had cancelled a tentative appointment to meet with Philadelphia Mayor JAMES H. J. TATE on the morning of August 3, 1965, since it could not be fitted into Dr. KING's schedule. Inspector [redacted] furnished the following schedule for Dr. KING's tour on August 3, 1965:

12:00 Noon to
2:00 P.M.

Lunch with businessmen at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel

2:20 P.M.

On August 2, 1965, Detective [redacted] Philadelphia

this date about three blocks away from the location where Dr. KING had attended a rally. The arrests were made shortly after Dr. KING had departed the area. The individuals were charged with desecration of the American Flag. All except one of those arrested were teenagers.

"The Philadelphia Inquirer," a Philadelphia daily newspaper, in its Final City Edition of August 3, 1965, carried an article entitled "Dr. King, Moore Vow Unity; Plan Meeting at Girard Wall." This article indicated that Dr. KING and CECIL B. MOORE, President, Philadelphia Chapter, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, joined hands on August 2, 1965, in a show of unity. Dr. KING endorsed

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." (S)(u)

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates (S)(u) and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (S)(u)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA. (S)(u)

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 8, 1965, that Martin Luther King (President of the SCLC) and some of his advisors, specifically Bayard Rustin (Organizer of the March on Washington), Harry Wachtel, and Andrew Young (Executive Director of the SCLC), conferred on that date. Their conference, according to the source, was devoted exclusively to the convention of the SCLC, which opens in Birmingham, Alabama, on August 9, 1965, and runs through August 13, 1965. (u)

King, in opening the conference, said the real purpose in conferring with his advisors, was to decide which resolutions would be presented at the convention and which would be most newsworthy. This prompted all to agree that the one dealing with the Viet-Nam conflict would be most newsworthy, especially since King is being questioned continuously on this issue. In light of (u)

Re: Communist Infiltration of the

that conclusion, a lengthy discussion ensued over what strategy should be utilized in order to get the resolution before the convention at the appropriate time. Several suggestions were made, but it was agreed that Rustin should be the individual to handle the questions dealing with Viet Nam. In order to do this, Rustin will work on a statement dealing with the question, write a memorandum on the question, and prepare an open letter to the President, to the Premier of the Soviet Union, and to the heads of all countries involved in the Viet Nam conflict. The letter will be written in the name of King and will state that he writes as a Nobel Peace Prize recipient and as an advocate of non-violence, and as such, urges negotiations to end the conflict. (S)(u)

Rustin, in declaring his position, said the civil rights movement was not ready to speak to the world on Viet Nam, but that King could speak as an individual, thereby getting the impact of the civil rights movement behind him. In that way, Rustin said, the other civil rights leaders could not criticize King for speaking out on the matter. (S)(u)

The letters to the various world leaders should go out on Thursday, Rustin said, but in the case of President Johnson, he should receive a telegram first, followed by the letter. (S)(u)

Following a decision on Viet Nam, King and his advisors then discussed strategic questions dealing with the resolution on civil rights. In that regard, it was agreed that the resolution should be presented on Wednesday night (August 11, 1965). (S)(u)

With regard to the resolution on civil rights, King said he had talked with Stanley Levison and Clarence Jones and had asked them to prepare the resolution but to date, he had not received anything other than a general statement dealing with civil rights. He said he would instruct Walter (Walter Fauntroy, Director of the Washington, D.C. office of the SCLC) to use the remarks made in the statement to prepare the overall resolution. Southern Christian Leadership Conference D.C.

In concluding their conference, King and his advisors took up the question of the SCLC financial report. In that regard, King said their auditors were working on the report but had not been able to conclude it because they were baffled with the problem as to how they should make known their findings. In explaining, King said the report reflects that for the past ten months, the SCLC received approximately one and one half million dollars, and if they include the months of July and August, 1965, they would report almost two million dollars for the 12-month period. (S)(u)

The same confidential source advised on August 8, 1965, that Wachtel contacted Rustin that night to inform him that he had made reservations for them aboard a Delta Airlines flight which leaves Newark at 7:05 pm, Wednesday, August 11, 1965, and arrives in Birmingham at 7:30 p.m., Central Standard Time. In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly-- openly." ~~(S)~~(u)

This is in response to the Director's instructions concerning the recent public announcement by Ralph Abernathy, Treasurer of captioned group, that he is able to check with FBI Agents concerning prospective employees. The Director noted on the United Press International release (original attached) "Look into this - of course no information of any kind is to be furnished SCILC." The Director also instructed on the memorandum from F. J. Baumgardner to Mr. Sullivan 7/1/65 (copy attached) "Let every Division Head and SAC at Washington Field Office be alerted."

ACTION TAKEN:

In response to the Bureau's telephonic inquiry of Special Agent in Charge Ponder, Atlanta, where the Southern Christian Leadership Conference Headquarters is located, Ponder advised by teletype 7/3/65 as follows. All Agents in the Atlanta Office handling these matters have been contacted and unanimously declared that they have never furnished any information to a Southern Christian Leadership Conference representative concerning any prospective employees. Ponder is completely satisfied that no information of this type has ever been furnished by Agents of the Atlanta Office. Pursuant to Bureau instructions, Ponder personally warned all employees that in the event any contact is ever made with Abernathy or any representative of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, they must be most circumspect and positively sure that no information is made available to that organization.

On 7/2/65, we telephonically alerted Special Agent in Charge Purvis of the Washington Field Office in accordance with the Director's instructions. The original of the 7/1/65 memorandum has been given special and urgent routing to all Division Heads for appropriate alert in accordance with the Director's instructions.

No longer can we allow the government to persuade young Americans that they are being noble by going to various places in the world and committing mass murder." In "The Saturday Evening Post," issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party." Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party." He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. U

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. U

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957. U

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot", a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the SOUTHERN CONFERENCE FOR HUMAN WELFARE (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 16, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

A second source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the New Orleans area, advised on June 2, 1965, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, Communist Party (CP) members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial question.

On June 2, 1964, the second source advised that in the past he has considered JAMES DOMBROWSKI, the Executive Director of the SCEF, to be a communist, if not an actual Communist Party member, because he followed communist principles.

The second source also advised on May 27, 1963, that many people who are officials and members of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means communists.

Birmingham Confidential Informant T-1 furnished
the following information on August 9, 1965: IC (U)

Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., arrived at the Birmingham airport approximately 11:15 a.m., August 9, 1965, with 15 members of his Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) staff. He held a short news conference in which he stated he is not in Birmingham to conduct demonstrations, but that Alabama is a logical place for the annual SCLC Convention, inasmuch as impetus for voting rights bill originated in Alabama. King proceeded to the Thomas Jefferson Hotel where he has a reservation on the twelfth floor. W

Reverend Fred L. Shuttlesworth, President, Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights, after meeting Reverend King at the airport, met with some 15 Birmingham Negro leaders, mostly members of ACMHR. At this time Shuttlesworth indicated he would attempt to secure a permit from the City of Birmingham for a march Tuesday at noon. This would be a march probably leaving the L. R. Hall Auditorium, proceeding down Fifth Avenue to the Post Office, thence to the City Hall, and then to the Jefferson County Court House. Shuttlesworth indicated on Wednesday, he hoped to march again on a permit, and then proceed to the Jefferson County Personnel Board Office in the Court House, and fill up the Personnel Board Office in protest against no Negro policemen employed in Birmingham. Shuttlesworth said that at one of the night meetings there is a possibility the mass meeting would adjourn, and march on the City Hall. Shuttlesworth said that this was not new, that night marches were instituted in St. Augustine, Florida, and it would be up to the city officials of Birmingham to protect the marchers. Shuttlesworth said he would attempt to get a resolution passed by the convention condemning the Federal Government for giving money to help operate the City Government of Birmingham, which is a segregated government. Shuttlesworth said the office of Economic Opportunity is ready to move into Birmingham on this matter when a formal complaint is made. Shuttlesworth said he wants the resolution to also request the Federal Government to cut off all financial aid to the Birmingham City Government. Shuttlesworth said that if he is arrested during this convention, he wants to be arrested in Mayor Boutwell's Office. James Bevels, SCLC staff member, is working on the proposed marches, according to Shuttlesworth. Reverend King has indicated to Carol Hoover, one of his secretaries, that he is ready and willing to assist local demonstrations in Birmingham in support of Negro police, but as yet he has not been asked by Shuttlesworth or anyone else to do this. U

SECURITY MATTER - C

On August 13, 1965, [redacted]

[redacted] advised that on August 12, 1965 he had interviewed Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) in Birmingham, Alabama, where Reverend KING was attending an SCLC convention. He stated he interviewed Reverend KING in connection with information which had come to his attention to the effect that representatives of Reverend KING had made inquiry at the United Nations, New York City, to ascertain how Reverend KING could transmit a letter to HO CHI MINH, President of North Viet Nam. U

[redacted] advised that he asked Reverend KING whether it was correct that he was currently attempting to correspond with HO CHI MINH. Reverend KING replied that he was in the process of preparing such a letter and had intended to forward it immediately and to announce it during the current SCLC convention being held in Birmingham. Reverend KING explained, however, that he had been persuaded to expend additional effort in preparation of his letter and expected to forward it in approximately a week's time. U

Reverend KING stated that in addition to the letter to HO CHI MINH, he contemplated sending similar letters to the government of South Viet Nam, the Soviet Union, and to President Johnson of the United States. Reverend KING declined to discuss the content of the letter to which he referred. U

[] advised that subsequent to the above interview, he inquired of Reverend KING on August 12, 1965 whether he felt the letter he intends to forward to HO CHI MINH and other governments might be in violation of the Logan Act. [] explained he understood this Act made it a Federal violation for a private citizen to correspond or negotiate with representatives of foreign governments on matters of official interest to the United States without approval of the United States Government. Reverend KING informed [] that he did not think his letter would violate Federal law and said that he had not consulted any representative of the United States Government in connection with his proposed correspondence. U

[] advised that in addition to interviewing Reverend KING as referred to above, he was present on August 12, 1965 during a portion of the proceedings of the SCLC convention in Birmingham. He said that based upon these two experiences he is of the personal opinion that Reverend KING may seek to personally inject himself into some type of negotiations either in Viet Nam or elsewhere in an effort to achieve a settlement of the Viet Nam conflict. information from NY 3810-S* and [NY 694-S*]. The first source furnishes information of a highly sensitive nature concerning racial matters in the New York area and the Communist infiltration

On August 13, 1965, a confidential source, who has U.S.A.
furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which disclosed that Stanley Levison and Dora McDonald (Secretary to Martin Luther King, President of the SCLC), were in contact on two occasions on that date. According to the source, McDonald related to Levison that King desired him (Levison) to prepare the answers to twelve questions dealing with Vietnam which were put to him (King) by the "New York Times". McDonald said the "Times" inquiry was precipitated by King's recent statement on Vietnam.

The "New York World Telegram and Sun", August 13, 1965, page 2, contained an article captioned, "Dr. King Urges Vietnam Talks". The article notes that King, while addressing the convention of the SCLC (held in Birmingham, Alabama, August 9-13, 1965), urged opposing sides in the Vietnam conflict to negotiate and end the struggle's cycle of "mistrust, violence and war". (u)

Re: Communist Infiltration of the Southern

Internal Security - C

Question: In his statement, King noted several peace organizations had approached him regarding Vietnam. What specific peace groups are they?

Answer: Among others, National SANE, Women Strike for Peace, Student and Faculty Group in Berkeley, California.

Question: What is the text of the letter King is sending to President Johnson and Ho Chi Minh?

Answer: When the text is finalized, a copy will be made available.

Question: How will the letter be sent?

Answer: These details have not been planned as yet.

Question: Should the United States stay in Vietnam if South Vietnamese ask us to leave?

Answer: I believe we would have no moral or juridical basis for remaining if a sovereign government demands that we leave its territory.

Question: Can he be more specific regarding his attitude on escalation of the war?

Answer: Escalation is expressed in so many degrees and is related to escalation on the other side so that I can discuss it only in concrete terms. It is impossible to generalize.

Question: King said he is not blaming either government for the war. Who is to blame?

Answer: There is blame on both sides because each has made responses too readily through means of violence without an earnest search for reduction of violence. I am encouraged by the restraint President Johnson has manifested both in action and in words and I believe the exercise of restraint will ultimately lead faster to constructive negotiation than will the flexing of the muscles of military power which the whole world knows we possess in terrifying abundance.

Question: What specific proposals would King have to make?

Answer: I have not formulated specific proposals for ending the war and I am not sure I have competence in that area.

Question: Is King seriously thinking of going to Vietnam and under what circumstances?

Answer: I have no plans to go to Vietnam.

Question: Will King's letter also be sent to the United Nations?

Answer: There are no plans for a letter to the United Nations because it is not a combatant nor an ally of any combatant. This does not imply it has no role. Its role is substantial but different.

Question: Will King contact United States officials regarding his plans, that is, Governors, Senators, Congressmen or Diplomats?

Answer: I have no body of plans which could be the subject of discussions. I am expressing a point of view which will be self explanatory and I sincerely hope useful for those who have the responsibility to make plans.

Question: King states he is following a path of non-violence, but Reverend James Bevel recently made statements indicating he is more militant. Can King reconcile this and is Bevel speaking for the SCLC or as an individual?

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

Re: Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)
Internal Security - C

Answer: The emphasis James Bevel places on peace activity in relation to civil rights activity differs from mine because I am not presently proposing any change in the direction or the character of our civil rights work. He has the right to express his analysis and has done so.

Question: Reverend Bevel stated the civil rights movement is legislated out of business. Will King comment on this?

Answer: I do not agree with James Bevel's view that the civil rights movement has been legislated out of existence. We still have so far to go I cannot see the end of the road even now. I see the need for a multiplicity of additional legislative reforms which will take years of struggle fully to achieve.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July 1963. [In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism.] (S) (U)

It is noted that James Bevel is Field Secretary of the SCLC.

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF
THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN
LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

[Birmingham Confidential Informant T-1 furnished
the following information on August 11, 1965] (U)

ATTENDED
The evening program of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference convention for August 10, 1965, was completed without any difficulty or incidents of any kind. ALW Dr. Mordica Johnson, who was scheduled to speak, did not appear at the convention, allegedly due to the illness of his wife. Dr. L. D. Reddick was present and introduced United Nations Ambassador S. O. Adebo from Nigeria, who made the principle speech. Adebo spoke on "The Black Revolution." He said that the purpose of the black revolution was to win fundamental human rights for all people on this planet. He spoke against the Black Muslim organization, stating that he agreed with only one theory of the Black Muslim group and that is self-improvement of the Negro. Telegrams of congratulations were read from President Johnson, Vice President Humphrey, U. S. Senators
Robert Kennedy, Jacob Javits of New York, and Governor Volpe of Massachusetts. This meeting was held at the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, scene of the bombing on September 15, 1963. The meeting adjourned approximately 11:00 PM. An estimated $3,500.00 was received when the collection was taken, and Mr. (first name unknown) Wood from Boston, Massachusetts, gave a $1,000.00 check."

RE: COMMUNIST INFILTRATION
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

An FBI Agent of the Birmingham Office observed the following events on August 10, 1965: U

At about 12:30 p.m., August 10, 1965, approximately 150 individuals who had been attending a prayer service at St. Paul's Methodist Church, 6th Avenue and 15th Street, North, left the church and formed a line. This group, composed mostly of Negroes, was led by Reverend FRED L. SHUTTLESWORTH, Reverend E. G. GARDNER, and Reverend CALVIN WALLACE WOODS, all members of the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights. U

Reverend E. G. GARDNER
Reverend CALVIN WALLACE WOODS
The group marched to the City Hall in Birmingham, which was about eight blocks from the starting place, and knelt down in front of the City Hall for prayer. Several placards were observed in the group which read "No taxation without representation", "City Hall is ungodly", "What is wrong in City Hall?" and "Employ Negro policemen and clerks." After the prayer, the group marched through Woodrow Wilson Park and to the steps of the Jefferson County Courthouse, where songs were sung and Reverend SHUTTLESWORTH spoke briefly. After this, the entire group marched back to the St. Paul's Methodist Church and dispersed. There was no trouble of any kind observed before, during, or immediately after the march. U

Captain [redacted] Birmingham Police Department, said that Reverend CALVIN WALLACE WOODS had obtained a permit from the city to march, as set out above. He said that when the group stopped to pray in front of the City Hall, and stopped on the steps of the Courthouse, the provisions of the permit were violated, as permit did not call for any stopping. U

The BIRMINGHAM POST-HERALD for Wednesday, August 11, 1965, printed an article on page 4 entitled "Marchers Demand Negro Policemen." This article said that approximately 325 white and Negro demonstrators, some of whom were delegates to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference Convention, marched through Birmingham streets to protest the lack of Negro policemen in the city. This article also said that a delegation from the group met with RAY MULLINS, County Personnel Director, and promised that there would be more demonstrations until Negro policemen are hired. Rev. CALVIN WOODS, a member of the Executive Committee of the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights, was quoted as saying, "We definitely plan to have more demonstrations, perhaps as soon as Wednesday or Thursday." The Rev. EDWARD GARDNER, Rev. N. H. WOODS, and Rev. CALVIN W. WOODS were the three representatives from the demonstrators who met with the Jefferson County Personnel Board Chairman, Mr. RAY MULLINS. U

The article stated that Mr. MULLINS talked with the three Negroes for about one-half hour and allowed the press to be present at the meeting. Mr. MULLINS reviewed the cases of Negroes who had attempted to qualify to become policemen. He said 90 had taken the test and only 11 had passed. Of those 11, only 4 were finally certified to become officers. The others who passed failed to meet physical and character requirements, he said. MULLINS said "that two of the four who were certified withdrew their names and the other two were removed 'for some other reason'". According to this article, Mr. MULLINS said he did not know the exact reasons the other two were not appointed but said that people who were certified had to appear within three days after notice of certification or they would be dropped. "This could have been one of the reasons," Mr. MULLINS was quoted as saying. Mr. MULLINS also said that anyone who takes the test can compare it with the answer sheet. "In fact, we encourage it," MULLINS stated. MULLINS charged that many of the Negroes who took the test "have been forced by your leaders to come here and they deliberately failed the test because they do not want the job." Rev. WOODS said that the situation was a moral one and predicted that it will "cause a lot of unrest in Birmingham," he was quoted as saying by the BIRMINGHAM POST-HERALD article. U

[Redacted] Detective, Birmingham, Alabama,
Police Department, advised on August 13, 1965, as follows:

The SCLC held a mass meeting at the Birmingham City Auditorium at 8:00 P.M., August 12, 1965, without incident. Approximately 3,500 people were in attendance and about $17,000.00 collection was taken in. Reverend Martin Luther King made a short speech at the end of the meeting. He was forced to cut his speech short due to the lateness of the hour as people began walking out. The only topic he discussed was the war in Viet Nam. He stated the United States Government should negotiate a peace; that war is evil. King said he had been advised to leave the war to experts, but he is not going to follow this advice. He mentioned the Bay of Pigs and two current books concerning the late President Kennedy, stating that Kennedy regretted he depended so much on experts. Reverend King stated that new diplomatic machinery should be created to negotiate a peace. (U)

The meeting adjourned at approximately 11:45 P.M., CST. No prayer vigil or night march was held and the crowd dispersed peacefully. (U)

The "Birmingham Post-Herald" for Friday, August 13, 1965, carried a story on page 7 entitled "500 Stage March Here." This article is set out as follows: (U)

"Approximately 500 whites and Negroes, almost all delegates to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), demonstrated yesterday in protest of alleged unfair hiring practices by the Birmingham-Jefferson County personnel board. (U)

"The group, which had obtained a parade permit, left the L. R. Hall Building and walked to the City Hall and then to the Courthouse. (U)

"The demonstrators prayed in front of City Hall and then heard a speech at the Courthouse. (U)

"After the speech, they sang 'We Shall Overcome,' and then walked back to the L. R. Hall building for some workshops. (U)

[Birmingham Confidential Informant T-1 furnished the following information:] (U)

On August 13, 1965, Dr. Martin Luther King held a breakfast in the Windsor Room of the Thomas Jefferson Hotel at 8:00 A.M. for members of the Executive Board of the SCLC. About fifteen members were present. All present were Negroes. One of the Board members told Reverend Andrew Young, SCLC official, that pressure was being put on Dr. King to make a statement on the subject of Viet Nam. (U)

Reverend Ralph Abernathy stated that the SCLC Board Members are concerned about recovering some $50,000 to $100,000 in bond money which was put up by SCLC in Birmingham in 1963. Rev. Abernathy commented on August 13, 1965, that a man by the name of Stanley Levison, among others, served on a committee during this SCLC convention to check the financial records of SCLC for the past fiscal year. On August 12, 1965, FBI Agents observed Harry H. Wachtel in the lobby of the Thomas Jefferson Hotel at about 2:30 P.M. He was standing by the registration desk when a party, including Dr. Martin Luther King and a woman, later ascertained to be Mrs. King, came in. Wachtel greeted the Kings and then engaged in conversation with Dr. King. Wachtel returned to two unidentified Negro men, who were standing nearby, at which time he turned and gestured to Rev. King, stating "Will you be available at 8:00 tomorrow morning?", at which time Rev. King said, "8:00 tomorrow morning will be fine." T-1 advised on August 11, 1965, that Dr. Lawrence D. Reddick spoke at the SCLC Convention on the night of August 10 at the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church. A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America, (CP, USA) in July, 1963. In late 1963 or early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party for not being sufficiently militant in the Civil Rights struggle. Levison was described by certain Communist Party leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on Civil Rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely technical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (S) (X) (S) (u)

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned, "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938 as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL) and, as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page one, column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." (u)

(u) Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19 and 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (u)

(u) A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA. (u)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild. (U)

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto. (U)

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York. (U)

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the SCLC, of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president and serves to raise funds for the SCLC. (U)

Lawrence Dunbar Reddick is a professor at Coppin State College, Baltimore, Maryland, and currently resides in Baltimore. On September 17, 1943, a confidential source advised she had learned that Dr. Reddick, who was then Director of the Schomburg Library, 103 West 135th Street, New York City, was one of the most important unpublicized members of the Communist Party. Memorandum from F. J. Baumgardner to Mr. Sullivan, dated 7/21/65, advised of information we had received that an unidentified female, resident of New York State, had donated $25,000 to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and intends to donate an equal sum to this organization every year. U

We have been able to identify this secret donor and although there is no substantial subversive information available concerning her, I thought you would be interested in the following: U

This woman is [redacted]

[redacted] and according to a bank reference, a most prominent, reputable and wealthy person.

The $25,000 contribution was effected in a most covert manner [redacted]

In June, 1964, we received information that one [redacted] had donated $10,000 to captioned organization and while we could not then identify her, due to the sparse information available through our sensitive-type coverage, there is no doubt she is the same person that made the recent $25,000 donation. OBSERVATIONS:

It is to be noted that we previously disseminated information to the effect that an unidentified donor had given $25,000 to King's organization, such dissemination being made to the White House, the Attorney General, other departmental officials and the military intelligence. Now that this woman has been identified, it is believed that even though we have no substantial subversive information concerning her, we should make dissemination limited only to the White House, the Attorney General and the Deputy Attorney General. We are thus identifying this woman and portray the clandestine nature of the operation by which she made the donation. U

King Calls Red Infiltration Charge a Red Herring

ROY OAK

Daily Tribune
July 3, 1965

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. said Thursday night that Chicago's mayor was trying to dodge the school integration issue by claiming that Communists were involved in local civil rights protests.

King also advised Chicago protest leaders to ignore pleas from Mayor Richard J. Daley and other officials to stop their almost daily demonstrations and permit a cooling off period.

of the background of prospective members "we will check with FBI men and they will tell us they have Communist backgrounds."

Abernathy said "we even go to some extent to check the FBI files."

The FBI in Washington said this was "absolutely untrue. FBI files are confidential."

'Fears Freeze'—

"We've cooled off all too long and I'm afraid we'll end up in a deep freeze," King said in a speech to a church convention. "Now is the time to get rid of de facto segregation, whether in Atlanta, Ga., or Chicago, Ill."

Nineteen downtown marches have been held here in less than a month to protest alleged de facto school segregation. Police have made 645 arrests, most of them in traffic-blocking street sprawls.

Daley, dedicating a playground Thursday despite a telephoned bomb threat, repeated his charge that Communists were participating in the protest movement against Chicago public school Superintendent Benjamin C. Willis.

"We know Communists infiltrate all these organizations," Daley said.

And King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and the FBI were at odds again today.

The current disagreement was touched off Thursday with a statement in Atlanta by Ralph D. Abernathy, treasurer and vice president of the SCLC.

Answering charges that Communists control major civil rights groups in the United States, Abernathy said "there are no Communists" in the SCLC. He said when the SCLC is not sure

On August 31, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stanley Levison conferred with [] on that date. The source said Levison told [] that his principal function will be raising funds for the SCLC, and that he will do this by contacting churches. In this regard, Levison said he desired to accompany [] down there (Atlanta, Georgia), to discuss a few things about the Negro churches he will contact in carrying out his duties; however, Levison cautioned that he might not be able to go since King had already delegated so many responsibilities to him that he did not know whether he would have the time. A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. Levison's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (S) - U

SUBJECT: "BLOOD BROTHERS"
RACIAL MATTER

OO: Los Angeles

Re Atlanta airtel to Bureau dated 8/27/65, captioned "COMINFIL OF SCLC, IS - C," with enclosed letterhead memorandum.

On 9/1/65, [] advised that the term "blood brothers" was a slogan which was painted on many of the Watts area store fronts during the recent Los Angeles riots to distinguish them as being owned by Negroes in an effort to keep them from being burned or looted and wrecked. [] advised that he has no knowledge of any group bearing this name having marched on any police station.

Other logical sources have advised that they are unaware of any such group.

Physical observation of the Watts area reveals the slogan "blood brothers" written on many of the store fronts.

Los Angeles indices contain no information concerning any such group nor for []

In view of the above, Los Angeles is conducting no further investigation concerning this matter.

Dr. King's North Base To Be Here

By Basil Talbott Jr.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. has decided to make Chicago the initial base of all Northern operations of his Southern Christian Leadership Conference, an SCLC staff member said Wednesday night.

The SCLC will work under the Co-ordinating Council of Community Organizations here in a co-operative effort to build up a "broadly based nonviolent movement" in Chicago, the Rev. Andrew J. Young told The Sun-Times from Atlanta by telephone.

The Chicago activity of the SCLC will "start with the school issue, but it probably won't stop there," the Rev. Mr. Young, executive director of the SCLC, said.

The SCLC will keep its "major staff concentration in the North in Chicago," he added.

"Just as Birmingham (Ala.) was our target city for public accommodations and Selma (Ala.) was our target city for voting rights, Chicago might possibly become the target city for some of the Northern problems," the Rev. Mr. Young said.

He stressed that SCLC will be working in Chicago under and at the special invitation of the CCCO. However, he added, this does not mean that the SCLC might not work in other Northern cities, too.

"Actually we will begin to

Terms City School Row Key Factor

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., civil rights leader, disclosed yesterday in Atlanta that he has decided to make Chicago a major target of a nonviolent school integration campaign.

The extent of participation by Dr. King's Southern Christian Leadership conference in the effort by the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations and other Chicago civil rights groups is to be discussed today at a meeting in Atlanta between Dr. King and Albert Raby, convener of the C. C. C. O.

The Rev. James Bevel, field director of the S. C. L. C. has been in Chicago for several weeks as the head of Dr. King's 10-man advance team to study the Chicago situation. The Rev. Mr. Bevel is regarded as one of King's most militant street demonstration leaders.

Pledge Personal Support

Dr. King said he has promised the C. C. C. O. his personal support and the support of the S. C. L. C. in a major drive to eliminate what some Negroes charge is de facto segregation in Chicago's public schools.

He described the Chicago campaign as "a pilot project on problems facing Negroes in northern ghettos," and indicated he might extend the campaign to such cities as New York, Cleveland, and Los Angeles.

A major goal of the C. C. C. O. and other Chicago civil rights groups has been the dismissal of School Supt. Benjamin C. Willis. The school board has given Willis a 4-year contract with the understanding he will resign in December, 1968, when he is 65. Negro groups blame Willis in their charge of de facto segregation.

Dr. King did not disclose if he would return to Chicago to take personal charge of the new campaign. However, an aid in Atlanta said it might be a month or more before Dr. King returns to Chicago.

Group Marches Again

Meanwhile, there was another demonstration last night against Willis. A group of demonstrators gathered in the afternoon at Buckingham fountain in Grant park, marched into the Loop, and then took public

About 60 of the demonstrators reassembled in front of the Edgewater Beach hotel and began picketing outside the hotel. Raby said they did this because there was a convention of sociologists in the hotel and "we want to make them aware of the responsibility of their profession."

Ten of the sociologists came out of the hotel and joined the pickets, who finally moved to the Edgewater Beach apartments nearby at 5555 Sheridan rd., where Supt. Willis and Frank M. Whiston, school board president, live. All but two of the sociologists dropped out of the picket line.

The demonstrators sang and chanted outside the apartment building but stopped this when Commander Robert Lynskey of the task force said they were disturbing the tenants and ordered them to desist. They moved south to the hotel and resumed picketing it before they disbanded.

do some basic groundwork in Chicago," he said. "To mount a movement, you need a convergence of many forces before a real movement develops. These forces may converge in Chicago, and they may not."

Albert Raby, convener of the CCCO, said he will go to Atlanta Thursday to "discuss plans for Chicago with Dr. King and his staff." Dr. King is president of SCLC.

The SCLC has sent a 10-man advance team to Chicago to work under the Rev. James Bevel, one of Dr. King's top associates, Raby said.

"We will be with Chicago for at least a year," the Rev. Mr. Young said, "and Dr. King will be spending a good portion of his time in and out of Chicago."

The Rev. Mr. Young said it may be "a month or more" before Dr. King makes his first return visit to the city.

"For a big project like this, it takes several months of advance organization," he said. "The first job will be to organize in the neighborhoods and conduct nonviolent training schools."

"We're perfectly willing to learn a lot in Chicago, and there may be some failures there. Some of our Southern techniques might not work."

"We are trying to work for the social salvation of the Negro in the North, but it is with some fear and trembling on our part," he continued. "However, Dr. King feels that something must be done."

The Rev. Mr. Young listed the following reasons for singling out Chicago for SCLC's pilot Northern campaign:

1 "CCCO is probably one of the best coalitions of civil rights forces existing anywhere in the country, and they invited us."

2 "Chicago is the second largest city in the nation and has within it all the difficult problems that are faced by every other Northern city. If Northern problems can be solved there, they can be solved anywhere."

3 "There is in Chicago a Democratic Party machine that can make changes in behalf of the people if their conscience is sharpened and the issues clearly raised before them. By contrast, in New York you can get agreement to do something, but it would take the city several years to get anything done."

4 In Chicago there is strong support from the religious community, both Protestant and Roman Catholic, for "social change in civil rights."

The Rev. Mr. Young said that since CCCO has concerned itself with the issue of what it terms de facto segregation in public schools and with the ouster of Schools Supt. Benjamin C. Willis, the SCLC campaign will start with these matters.

"At the same time, we know desegregation of schools and getting rid of Willis is just the smallest beginning in solving Negro problems in the ghetto," he declared. "Schools might be the beginning issue through which we might mobilize communities to begin dealing not only with schools but with some of the problems of jobs and housing."

However, he added, "non-violent movements are not something that are preplanned and predetermined." Specifics for the campaign will have to be worked out as the movement progresses.

"This is not as though we are seeking trouble or trying to stir up trouble," he said. "There are serious problems in the North that will mean serious trouble for our nation unless some solution emerges."

"We're trying to experiment, in hopes that nonviolent solutions to these problems will emerge."

SUBJECT: ~~BY 974~~ RACIAL SITUATION,

RACIAL MATTERS

DATE: 9-10-65

- 1 - Mr. T. J. Smith

By teletypes dated September 8 and 9, 1965, the Atlanta Office advised that information had been developed through sources of extreme sensitivity indicating that individuals connected with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which is presided over by Martin Luther King, had been discussing the racial situation in Natchez, Mississippi. U

Edwinna Smith, Executive Secretary, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, stated in one conversation that the people in Natchez, Mississippi, are planning a "big thing" tonight. There was no further identifying information mentioned about the "big thing." She said that Charles Evers, Field Director for National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, had indicated the possibility of being arrested. Later, Hosea Williams, Director of Voter Registration, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and Summer Community Organization and Political Education, said that he was preparing to go to Mississippi. He also indicated a possibility of going to jail. U

Still later, Martin Luther King in a conversation mentioned that Charles Evers was reluctant to say what activity was planned in Natchez, Mississippi, on September 9, 1965. Through inquiry King learned that Evers planned a night march on September 9, 1965, in Natchez. U

Atlanta noted in connection with the foregoing information that no action should be predicated thereon which might jeopardize the security of these sources and dissemination of such information should be classified "Secret." U

Special Agent in Charge Roy M. Moore, Jackson Office, telephoned Night Supervisor [redacted] on September 9, 1965, from Natchez, Mississippi. He advised as follows relative to the information set forth above: U

Special Agent in Charge Moore said that Charles Evers has been in contact with all the wire services in the area in an apparent attempt to alert them to planned activity. He said that Hosea Williams was scheduled to arrive and that a meeting had been scheduled at Bethel Church in Natchez upon Williams' arrival. U

Special Agent in Charge Moore said that it appears that an effort will be made to have from a hundred to three hundred persons present at the church. Then after some speeches an effort will be made to have this gathering march to City Hall when they will demonstrate and renew demands which Evers had previously made. U

Special Agent in Charge Moore pointed out that a 10:00 p.m. curfew exists and that there is a possibility that Evers, who has said the curfew is illegal, will attempt to test it by defying the curfew and thereby forcing mass arrests. He said that some of the more level headed people in the area have urged that the curfew be abandoned so that no excuse for forcing test arrest cases will be available. U

At 12:15 a.m., September 9, 1965, Special Agent [redacted] Jackson Office, telephonically advised Midnight Supervisor [redacted] that 183 marchers left above-mentioned meeting about 8:00 p.m. They were confronted by the Chief of Police three blocks from the church where it was agreed the group could proceed in an orderly line two abreast to the City Hall provided they disband prior to 10:00p.m., Central Daylight Time. This was done and group started disbursing at 8:47 p.m. after kneeling in silent prayer. The streets were clear by 9:00 p.m. and as of 10:15 p.m., Central Daylight Time, it appeared there would be no further organized activity during the night. The Chief of Police, Natchez, had advised he plans to meet with Negro leaders on September 10, 1965, concerning further marches. It was assumed this includes Evers although no names were mentioned by the Chief. U

Re Atlanta airtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM) 9/13/65, copies to Los Angeles, which reported that Reverend Thomas Kilgore of the SCLC had been in contact with the SCLC Office in Atlanta concerning utilization of a Boy Scout camp in October, 1965. It was also reported that Andrew Young of the SCLC in Atlanta might assist in the activity involved in Los Angeles. Referenced airtel noted that sources had no details concerning the activity being planned for the Boy Scout camp and it was conjectured that it might refer to an SCLC workshop. J

For the information of recipient offices, dissemination of referenced LHM is not being made at this time because of the sparse information available and the fact that it does not refer to a specific activity. Recipient offices should attempt to identify the activity in question and as soon as firm information is obtained, another LHM should be submitted which should contain the information in referenced LHM as well as the subsequently developed information. Dissemination will then be made by the Bureau. J

ReBBAirtel and LHM 9/16/65, copies to offices being designated copies of instant Buairtel. U

Information is reported in referenced communications from [redacted] concerning a meeting held 9/6/65 by the Alabama Christian Movement for Human Rights (ACMHR). Commencing with the fourth paragraph, Page 1 of the LHM, it is reported that source also determined that Reverend Charles Billups is expected to go to Chicago to work on the staff of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) there and that Billups said that he had been offered $14,000 by the Communist Party. Billups is also reported to have said one James Orange, a member of the SCLC, was offered $18,000 a year to work for the Communist Party, which he refused.
The LHM ends with information concerning the expected SCLC activities in Chicago and that an extensive program of civil disobedience has been planned. According to the source, this would doubtlessly cause a loss of many lives. X U

The information concerning Billups and Orange having allegedly been offered high-salaried positions by the Communist Party needs to be clarified before the Bureau will consider dissemination. The LHM is not clear as to how this information was acquired by the source. Was it acquired at the 9/6/65 meeting of the ACMHR? Or was it acquired on another occasion? X U

Birmingham is instructed to immediately recontact the original source and obtain from him the fullest details possible concerning these allegations. Referenced LHM is not being disseminated and the Bureau will consider dissemination of a revised LHM which should include more specific details concerning the matter in question. Include any available information identifying Billups and Orange and advise as to whether or not they have subversive backgrounds which would make it logical for the Communist Party to engage them. X 4

As to source's statement that civil disobedience planned for Chicago would doubtlessly cause a loss of many lives, obtain from source any information he has to substantiate this statement. If it is pure opinion or conjecture on the source's part, same should be so indicated. X 4

It is noted that referenced LHM stated that Chicago was being furnished copies of the LHM for use in possible dissemination. Chicago should not disseminate the information concerning the alleged Party's offers until this matter is clarified. ☐

Birmingham note correct Bufile number as indicated above and not as stated in reairtel. ☐

This matter should be afforded most expeditious attention by the Birmingham Office and reply submitted to the Bureau promptly by airtel. ☐

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

RACIAL SITUATION
SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

Reference is made to Atlanta memorandum dated August 23, 1965. u

X Local telephone directories identify Mrs. Girely X Anderson/Davis as Girlie A. Davis, which would seem to be the correct spelling of her first name. u Dob-8-8-10

On September 3, 1965, [redacted] Credit
Bureau, Inc., Springfield, Massachusetts, advised that records of that office identified Girlie Anderson Davis, 165 Buckingham St., Springfield, as a school teacher employed by the City of Springfield, Massachusetts. Information concerning Mrs. Davis and her husband, John, who is listed as retired, has been in the credit files since February, 1962. Available information also indicates that Mrs. Davis was born on August 8, 1910 and was married to Mr. Davis John Davis at Birmingham, Alabama. There is a notation in the file concerning a former address, 37-5 Court, South Birmingham, Alabama, although there is no date nor indication as to the significance of this notation. u

On September 3, 1965, [redacted] Probation
Department, District Court, Springfield, Massachusetts, stated that she could identify no arrest record in the files of that department with Girlie Anderson Davis or with John Davis. u
